Freshman Rules

Freshmen should wear regulation equipment, white trousers, and gray caps. These should be on when on the Institute grounds, at the beginning of the day, and again before the beginning of classes. These rules are on Registration Day by the Freshman Student Committee, and after that by the Corp.

Students are expected to appeal to all members of the faculty and to refer all questions to them.

3. Freshmen should not loiter in the gymnasium, nor be in their dormitories, nor at any time in the College. If the freshmen

SPORTS DEPOT

It might be well to emphasize the fact that indicating one's desire to take up a particular sport at this time will not lessen one's chances to take part in the events which make up Field Day competitions. Practically for most of the winter sports are not begun with any great degree of regularity.

Don Gilman will be very much in the news during the coming freshman season.

The variance in the taking of classes that indicating one's desire to take up a particular sport at this time will not lessen one's chances to take part in the events which make up Field Day competitions. Practically for most of the winter sports are not begun with any great degree of regularity.

Don Gilman will be very much in the news during the coming freshman season.

The variance in the taking of classes that indicating one's desire to take up a particular sport at this time will not lessen one's chances to take part in the events which make up Field Day competitions. Practically for most of the winter sports are not begun with any great degree of regularity.

Don Gilman will be very much in the news during the coming freshman season.

The variance in the taking of classes that indicating one's desire to take up a particular sport at this time will not lessen one's chances to take part in the events which make up Field Day competitions. Practically for most of the winter sports are not begun with any great degree of regularity.

Don Gilman will be very much in the news during the coming freshman season.

The variance in the taking of classes that indicating one's desire to take up a particular sport at this time will not lessen one's chances to take part in the events which make up Field Day competitions. Practically for most of the winter sports are not begun with any great degree of regularity.

Don Gilman will be very much in the news during the coming freshman season.

The variance in the taking of classes that indicating one's desire to take up a particular sport at this time will not lessen one's chances to take part in the events which make up Field Day competitions. Practically for most of the winter sports are not begun with any great degree of regularity.