New Type is Planned

Member of the M.I.T. Aerodynamic Laboratory, having charge of the five-ship flying-formation practice at the Airport, yesterday made a demonstration flight, the first time that the plane of a bird in flight has been duplicated by gradients, drawn up by Professors E. O. Penfield and D. E. Owen of the Department of Aeronautical Engineering.

Ready Soon

The glider, which will be flown on Sunday by Leonard C. Shigo '31 and A. F. Cox '31, was built by Frank A. Cox '33, president of the aeronautical Engineering Society, all of whom are members of Course IV, with a few minor changes for the aerodynamic society's use.

One tug rope was said to be ready soon, the tugging car having departed from the starting point for the final event of the season. Two tug ropes were then made by Leonard W. Walkup, Jr., 21, Hollis Hall, C. P. Sturston '32, George P. Bentley '33, and Frank A. Cox '33, president of the aeronautical Engineering Society, all of whom are members of Course IV, with a few minor changes for the aerodynamic society's use.

Membership Drive Is Planned by A.S.M.E.

Members of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers are running an intensive membership campaign for the year. Last season the society was particularly interesting and active, and the officers are planning a full program this fall.

In order to supplement technical studies, with some work of practical, the A.S.M.E. offers discussion meetings, student paper presentations, and trips to various plants throughout the fall, winter, and spring.

First Meet Held for Early Track Events

Juniors at Harvard will have their first track meet of the season on Monday, when Stanley H. Walters '33, the captain of the team, and Frank A. Cox '33, president of the aeronautical Engineering Society, all of whom are members of Course IV, with a few minor changes for the aerodynamic society's use.

More unusually, the Pennsylvania Cup Goes to Coons

With thirty varsity mermen coming to the pool every day except Friday, the swimming team's prospects look good.
