TUG-O-WAR MEN ARE READY FOR FIELD DAY

An Average of Thirty Men Are Practicing Daily

Shaving unusual cooperation in the formation of tug-o-war teams, the freshmen and fraternities and fraternities are each looking forward to a victory over the other on Field Day. Coach Freeman W. Primm '29 and Coach Pierre S. Daffiny '30, of the Sophomore and Freshman teams respectively, have had more than thirty men trying out for each group. For the present, the coaches will conduce to discussions of the four publications.

The freshmen team, which averages about ten pounds lighter a man than their more experienced rivals, seems to make up for this in the vigor of their counter. The Sophomore team, which averages about ten pounds heavier a man than their more experienced rivals, seems to make up for this in the vigor of their counter. Both teams areexpected to be ready for the tug-o-war event on Field Day, he

TENNIS TOURNAMENT PROGRESSES SLOWLY

The tennis tournament, which started with 124 players, is slowly progressing, but is not moving as quickly as expected. The tournament has been affected by the weather, which has been less than ideal. The tournament is scheduled to conclude this weekend, but it is likely that it will be extended due to the slow progress.
