RADIO SPORTS WEEK

Officers Elected at First Meeting of New Season

At the meeting of the M. I. T. Radio Society held last Friday, Mr. Gage, of the Communications, was elected vice-president of the society. The construction work at WMBX will be carried out under his direction.

Virginia Chosen as Typical University

Virginia was chosen as the typical American university to be used in a comparison with foreign institutions as part of a survey conducted by the United States, by President MacCracken's Committee. This survey was conducted by the New York Times Magazine service.

In the course of his essay, Dr. Mann expressed the belief that both the British and American educational systems have much to offer in the way of improving the American system.

As We See the MOVIES

Karameko

Hailed by many as one of the greatest pictures ever produced in a foreign language, "Karameko," as he appeared at the Pitts Theatre this week, proved to be an interesting and entertaining picture. It was at times brilliant, photograpically speaking.

Field Days Bring Increased Activity

Field Days bring increased activity to the campus. Attendance at the recent assembly was excellent, indicating that anything new and interesting is sure to attract students.
