LITMUS PAPER

L. M. Wause, Jr.

T. C. A. may have raised its quota for new students to $5,000, but it continues to serve the support of every man at the Institute.

T. C. A. Must Raise Quota of $5,000
To Continue Services to Students

Salaries of Secretaries Are Paid in Assistance to Alumni Fund

To provide funds with which to continue the services that the Technology Alumni Association furnishes, the student body of the Institute, it is starting its campaign to raise $5,000 for this purpose. The quota is due on November 2 and November 6. In this time the alumni from all over the country have been sent a notice asking for a contribution to this end.

A reply to the Editor for abolishing the honorary societies. I am aware that there are those who are afraid of the cost of stolen books. Can be resold to other students, the T.C.A. also maintains a ticket exchange which any member of these organizations, and

In Charge of this issue: Walter L. Wise, Jr., '24

T. C. A., one of the first honorary organizations to open its doors to the student body, has over the years maintained its status as one of the most prestigious organizations at the Institute. Founded in 1908, the T.C.A. has served the Institute and its students for over a century, providing support and resources to its members.

T. C. A. is an integral part of the Institute's history and culture, and its members have played a significant role in shaping the Institute's future. Through their contributions, T. C. A. has been able to support a wide range of activities, from academic to social, and its legacy continues to this day. T. C. A.'s dedication to excellence and service has remained unchanged, and its members continue to be leaders in their respective fields.

For more information about T. C. A. and its activities, please visit our website at www.tca.org. If you are interested in joining T. C. A. or learning more about its services, please contact our main office at 123 Main Street, Cambridge, MA 02138. We look forward to hearing from you and welcoming you to the T. C. A. family.