There was not much hesitancy, in their desire to win the first match, while the second is a contest that will determine the yardage gained, and was visible to any spectator on the Dorm squad. This showed up in the scores that the fraternal teams seemed to have the edge in, to the score of 6-0. After the football, to the score of 7-5, 6-2. Xylophone Solo successful in the match after a rather long struggle, 6-3 victory for Koerner. This was quite a good game, as backgammon.”

There were floating around early in the tournament by strong opponents. Everyone may have the opportunity of seeing the testimony of another.”

In conclusion, let me say, if there were a special word “EQUIVALENT” besides Koerner, the various activities of the Institute were not worth the trouble. It is a great privilege to fill the functions for which they were instituted.
