T. C. A. DRIVE NETS $2,000 FOR START

(Collected from Snub Pop)

Those who constitute will have greatly increased by that time. But surely the letters “TCA” are being given to those who contribute, to save them the annoyance of being approached after they have given what was done the work of the drive workers. This is the first time in four years that the booties have been used. Members of the Faculty may contribute at this time if they so desire, but another drive among Faculty this fall will be conducted in February.

The Columbia Spectator, daily student publication at Columbia University, published in its first issue this year a welcome announcement of the formation of the Columbia Spectator. This is the first time in four years that the Faculty has had a student publication of its own. The Spectator is conducted in February.

THE TECH Publishes Field Day Pictures Friday

Don’t fail to secure the Field Day negatives supplement which will be given complimentary with the regular edition of THE TECH on Friday. The special section of the Thursday paper will contain the pictorial section of the event.

It’s a Truly Modern Cigarette

“I’m certainly grateful for Lucky Strike. It’s a truly modern cigarette for it gives me modern throat protection. And your improved Cellophane wrapper is wonderfully modern, too. It opens without any coaxing — a flip of the little tab and there are my Luckies.”

— J. L. M. J., Chicago
