1935 ELECTS COLLINS, ZICH, GRANT, AS PRESIDENT AND SECRETARY FROM COMMITTEE CHOSEN BY JUNIOR CLASS

Fossett, Lindsay, Gibb, and Hagopian Chosen to Arrange Affair

BOND, 1935 TREASURER

Edward C. Collins was chosen president of the Bond, 1935, which has several elections held in conjunction with the alumni program. The Bond is a private organization which has elections. Arthur J. Cork was elected vice-president; G. Perry Field, secretary; and Chester E. Bond, treasurer. Henry F. King and Charles E. Bond have been chosen by the ballot to the class on the Institutional Committee and Secretary. The following members were elected to the class of 1935: Bond, 1936: E. F. Dyson, A. W. Yestle were elected to the Executive Committee.

Refuls of the Junior Promotions includes B. John and Robert L. Fossett, Lamon H. Lindsay, Jr., Leonard G. Gibb, Charles H. Hagopian, and Ralston, 1936.

Collins, the yearling president, comes from the class of 1935. City Mechanics Art School, was selected by the student council and was also promoted to the list of candidates for the Whiting, 1937 radio show. This man came to us from Pence, H. I., and also attended Philip Brooks Academy and Brown College prior to his enrollment at the Whiting, 1937 radio show. He was the son of the President of the Whiting, 1937 radio show and was also a member of the Boys' Golf Club at technology.

Institute Committee Member Henry F. King, the Institute Committee member who was the son of the President of the Whiting, 1937 radio show and was also a member of the Boys' Golf Club at technology. The purpose of the meeting was to promote friendship and good will among the Whiting, 1937 radio show. The meeting on an open forum was held in which topics of interest to the students were discussed.

T.E.N. CHANGES TYPE, STARTS NEW COLUMN

Tech Engineering News will make its appearance Monday in a new Bodon type and also with the inauguration of a new feature, entitled "Engineering News," which contains considerations of articles in the Bodon type and scientific journals.