FRESHMEN CROSS COUNTRY RUNNERS END FAIR SEASON
Take Seventh Place In I.C.A. A. Fall On Eastern Coast
BEST FINISH SINCE 1927

Although the freshmen cross-country team did not have a very spectacular season, several men were discovered during the course of the race this fall. Thomas A. Horgan of the Class of 1932, who was captured by G. D. Holmes, is considered as formidable prospects for next year's team.

In the threat of this fall the freshman engaged in a race with the first-year men of Harvard, New Hampton, and Dartmouth. The total score of this race was New Hampton 10, Harvard 4, Dartmouth 6, and Technology 11.

Second-hand Sales In MS21 Show Depression

Second-hand Sales in MS21 have been hit by the depression, and with the end of the semester these stores are all closed. The only business they have been doing is the sale of old textbooks. Many men have been trying to sell their textbooks, but with the depression they have been unable to sell them at a profit.

The tech is a place for students to sell their textbooks, and with the depression they have been unable to sell them at a profit. The tech is a place for students to sell their textbooks, and with the depression they have been unable to sell them at a profit.
