SUSPENDS FRESHMAN RULES DECEMBER 19

Institute Committee Grants Rights To Burn Ties

Fristmen rules will be suspended at 6 o’clock on the morning of December 19 instead of the usual time, the beginning of the Christmas holiday. The decision was officially adopted last evening by the student body. It was made by the chief officers for the evening.

At the same meeting, permission was given to the officers of the class to hold the dance for which the usual suspension of rules was made. Very interesting formalized plans call for a dance lasting from 8 to 11 o’clock, to be followed at 10 o’clock by a “nights” of “veterans.” All those desiring to go are asked to make arrangements with their advisors to get passes for the “nights.”

Further announcement of this dance will be made in THIS TECH at a later date.
