WE hope that no more gripes will present themselves for ridicule. This column, although humorous, has degenerated into a catalogue of gripes of late. Of course, it is easier to gripe than to be funny, but that is no excuse. The Lounger will never grip on himself.

The tobacco in Camels are never parched or toasted — the Reynolds method of scientifically applying heat guarantees against that.

That's why we say with so much assurance that Camels are truly fresh. They're made fresh — not parched or toasted — and then they're kept fresh in the Camel Humidor Pack.

Try Camels' freshness for a change. Switch over for just one day, then change back — if you can.
