Mornen Out to Revenge Defeat

Of Last Year At Hands

of West End

Auburn will be the first opponent of the Technology swimming team. This year's team includes several members of the 1931 O'Connell Cup group in the University pool. Last year the Tigers defeated us by 30 points in the meet by the score of 45-0, and are to even up the score.

In the interim, the meet held last December, much good material was brought to light. Last minute swimmers showed the team to be well-balanced, and should they have more opportunities of showing their mettle, standing men on the team are Captain James L. VanH. Vassalotti '32 and second stake event and Edward May, former N.E.I.S.A. champion. The Harvard, an adept-stroke swimmer.

Varsity Man Will Face Army In First Match Of The Season

On Saturday, January 16, the Tech- army boxing team will engage in its first match of the season, travelling to West Point to meet the Army. Coach Tannery Rouse has been drilling his charges very strictly of late, and every man is in excellent shape. The outstanding boxers in this form for this year have been Captain Peyton Cooper, who was a semi-finalist in the intercollegiate championships last year, and John D. Braudi. Harvard will be the next team which will compete against Technology. This match is scheduled for January 14 at Harvard.

Wrestling Captain To Wrestle Against Yale Team Saturday

Knee Injury Healed In Time; Keller Also Fit To Go

With the return of Captain Louis J. Vassalotti '32 and George Roller '32, two key men to the team, the prospects of the team hold brighter than ever. Up to yesterday it was believed that neither of these men would be able to wrestle against Yale. Vassalotti has been troubled with a nick knee and Roller was suffering from a sprained arm. Yesterday afternoon, the wrestlers were announced as being fit to compete and the former injuries were announced.

Vassalotti, "B" 135-lb. man, was declared by the selection committee to be a 135-lb. man, will be unable to compete against the Yale team, being forced from action. Also, neither George Roller '32 or John J. Keller '33 will be able to compete against the Yale team. The regular 138-1/2-lb. man, Paul R. McMahen '32, was declared by Jackson K. Edney '32. In the 125-lb. class, Ed Y. Edney '32, declared the regular. Philip E. Nagy '32.

Meeting Yale at Yale, the following wrestlers will be in action for the froshs:--

Free Dance Tickets Will Be Distributed In Lobby on Tuesday

Committee To Make Effort To Exclude "Cracker" At Senior Dance

Tickets for the annual Senior dance, to be held at Walker Memorial meet Friday, will be distributed to members of the Senior Class on Tuesday, and Wednesday and Thursday next week in the Main Lobby, between 3:30 to 5:00 p.m. Members of the Dance Committee intend to prevent those who are not Senior from obtaining tickets, in order to make the dance more convenient for students, and all expenses of the dance will be paid from the class treasury.

President and Mrs. Karl T. Compoot will be present at the dance to address the matric and officers of the Junior Class will act as ushers. President and Mrs. Karl T. Compoot will be present at the dance to address the matric and officers of the Junior Class will act as ushers. In order to make the evening music will be provided by the Tech Symphony. Attendees are requested to call for their tickets early so that the Committee will have ample time in which to complete the final preparations.

A Senior of the Tech Ceef is responsible for a YeaLently conceived idea whichprovided the basis of the floor plans of this house. This Senior was one of a group of Architects who visited Washington a week ago and were put to the point of creating a house that would be both beautiful and comfortable. He conceived the idea of calling the professor in charge of this work for advice, and after an hour talk with him, received the approval of the plans. The professor by this permission, one person and not the whole class went out.
