NEW BOARD ELECTED AT THE TECH DINNER

[Continued from page one]

...dress on "How To Improve a College Newspaper," following which, James R. Killian '26, former Managing Editor of THE TECH; Gilbert M. Rody '25, former General Manager of THE TECH; Bertram B. Rowse '29, former Editor of THE TECH; Professor Henry G. Pearson, Head of the English Department; Dr. Allen W. Rowe '81, of the Advisory Council on Athletics; James J. Boulware, Head of the Technology News Service; Frederick G. Passett, Jr., Instructor in Journalism; A. W. Kennedy Billings, Jr., 36, of the Advisory Council on Student Publications; and Edmund F. McLaughlin '29, who has been associated with THE TECH for several years, discussed the faults of THE TECH and how to improve them. Dr. Rowe gave an interesting dis course on the finances derived from undergraduate activities.

Hayes in New General Manager
Hayes, General Manager-elect, of Mar-etta, Ohio, prepared at Marietta High School, being graduated in 1928, entered Marietta College in the Class of 1932 and attended during the freshman year. The following year he transferred to Techology, entering in Course VI-A in the Class of 1933. He entered into competition in the Advertising Department of THE TECH and last year was elected Advertising Manager for Volume LI. He is a member of Styx and the Beaver Key Society. He is also a member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity.

Whitlin Elected Editor
Editor-elect Whitlin, of Raleigh, North Carolina, was graduated from Charlotte High School in 1929. From there he enrolled in the University of North Carolina in the Class of 1932, where he was active as a reporter on THE Daily Tar Heel, the undergraduate paper. The following year he entered the Institute in Course XVII in the Class of 1933. He entered into competition in the Features Department of THE TECH and last year was Features Editor. He is a member of Styx and Phi Kappa Sigma fraternity.

Clewil Marks Managing Editor Clewil, newly-elected Managing Editor, hails from Berwick, Pennsylvania, where he attended the Berwick High School. He served on the school paper and was president of the senior class.

Following his graduation in 1929, he entered the Institute in Course VIII. He worked on THE TECH as a reporter during his first year and was a news writer in his sophomore year. Last year he was selected News Editor for Volume LI. He is a member of Styx and the Beaver Key Society.

Smith Announced New Business Manager
Smith, of Mercersburg, Pennsylvania, who was chosen Business Manager, progressed at the Hill school in Mercersburg, being graduated in 1929. He served on the Business Service Staff of THE TECH during his freshmen two years at the Institute, where he had enrolled in Course XIV, and the following year he was elected Business Service Manager. He is a member of Styx and Chi Phi fraternity.

In addition to the Managing Board, the Association Board, which was announced by Hayes, will be composed of the following newly-elected Junior Board Members:
Winton Brown '34, Circulation Manager; Norman B. Kriis '34, Business Service Manager; William R. Cheatham '34, Advertising Manager; Convention S. Decal'IS '34, News Editor; Walter L. Wise.
'34, Features Editor; W. Gregg Fry,
'34, Make-up Editor; and Herbert R. Flass '34, Sports Editor.

“i play safe by sticking to LUCKIES”

“i can’t afford to take chances with my voice. So i play safe by sticking to LUCKIES—they’re always kind to my throat. And i’m doubly grateful for your improved Cello-phone wrapper which opens easily with that clever little tab.”

“it’s toasted”

YourThrost Protection — against irritation — against cough
And Moisture-Profit Cellophone Scissors that “Toasted” Flavor Even TUNE IN ON LUCKIES — 60 modern minutes with the world’s finest dance orchestra and Walter Winchell, whose gossip of today becomes the news of tomorrow, every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evening over N. B. C. networks.