The THE TECH

February 15, Monday

War Is Predicted If United States Demands Economic Debts Be Paid

Tech-in-Turkey Representative Expresses Crisis Within Four Months

Another world war is inevitable within a few years, according to a Tur- kish student who returned here to-day from the United States. According to the American student, the world war is of the utmost importance to Turkey, which, in his opinion, in an effort to retain within the United States. The student, who was in the United States for several months, said that Turkey is feeling the effects of the economic crisis and is looking to the United States for assistance.

The student expressed his concern about the economic crisis, stating that Turkey is facing difficulties in fulfilling its economic obligations. He emphasized the importance of economic stability and the need for Turkey to balance its economic situation. The student predicted that Turkey would face further economic challenges in the near future.

The student also highlighted the necessity of international cooperation. He emphasized the value of friendly relations and the need for nations to work together to overcome economic difficulties. He expressed confidence in the capability of nations to address economic issues and prevent a catastrophic war.

In conclusion, the student urged nations to focus on maintaining peace and fostering economic cooperation. He emphasized the importance of diplomatic efforts and the need for nations to work in harmony to achieve a stable and prosperous future.

In Charge of this Issue: Philip A. Daniel '24

---

TIME FOR A DECISION

The Student-Faculty Curriculum Committee must decide whether to accept or reject the poll taken by the Southern university, which shows a majority in favor of modification of the Eighteenth Amendment.

This decision is crucial for the future of the nation, as it will determine whether or not the United States will enter World War I. The committee must carefully consider the implications of their decision and ensure that it aligns with the best interests of the nation.

---

LOWE'S STATE

The Greeks Had a Word for Them

The word "economia" roughly translates to "economic control." It signifies the concept of controlling one's own economic resources. In today's world, this concept is more relevant than ever. One can own the means of production and control one's economic affairs to a certain extent.

---

EXTRA-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

At last the value of extra-curricular activities is being acknowledged. Among other colleges, the Milton College faculty has adopted a plan whereby extra-curricular activities will be given official recognition with "service credits." This plan recognizes the importance of extra-curricular activities in the development of students.

---

THE CURRICULUM COMMITTEE MEETING

The Curriculum Committee handled a number of questions concerning the continuance of the Eighteenth Amendment. Two only were in favor of it, while the other two were in favor of modification of the Eighteenth Amendment.

---

THE EDITORIAL

Thirty of the thirty-four college daily editors, in a nation death taken by the Daily Tar daily of the University of North Carolina, were in favor of modification of the Eighteenth Amendment. Only two editors were in favor of the continuance of the Eighteenth Amendment, while the other two were in favor of modification of the Amendment.

---

As We See the MOVIES

LOWE'S STATE

The Greeks Had a Word for Them

The Greeks Had a Word for Them is a unique metaphor that signifies the concept of controlling one's own economic resources. It is a reminder to the viewer that one can own the means of production and control one's economic affairs to a certain extent.

---

EDGEMOUTH **

Smoking Tobacco

Edgeworth is a blend of fine leaves of tobacco, simmered in the world's denisifac. It is a popular choice among pipe smokers, and it is known for its smooth smoke. Edgeworth is available in various blends, offering a range of flavors to suit different tastes. The blend is known for its smooth smoke and its rich, full-bodied flavor.

---

DORM PROM

Friday evening the annual Dorm Prom, largest of the dormitory social functions, was held, and from all comment that has been heard, the affair was most successful.

The event was organized to provide a fun and social gathering for students, allowing them to unwind and enjoy each other's company.

In making arrangements for the affair this year, the group planned something of a more elaborate nature than those of previous years and that their efforts were well received is shown by the fact that there were present one of the largest crowds ever to attend a dormitory dance. Constant comparison was made of this affair with those of the past, and it was generally agreed that this was the finest dormitory affair of its kind.

---

SPECULUM

A Record of Controversies Among Undergraduates Over Fifty Years

Speculum is a publication that has been in existence for over fifty years. It is known for its controversial and thought-provoking content, and it has been a platform for students to express their views on various issues. The publication has a long history of publishing articles on a wide range of topics, and it continues to be a valuable resource for students and faculty alike.

---