PAUL C. COOPER was elected captain of the varsity club, Daley is a local college freshman, and has been three years on the team in his high school. He is a member of the Boston Latin School and was a member of the hockey team there. Dalle, from his ability to play the game, is considered a tough match for anyone on the team. The price point down!

With less sports occupying the major portion of the sport calendar, it is not surprising that many a student is now spending his time in the gymnasium. Through Eddy’s potato cooperation, some students will start next Tuesday evening in the halls of the school. The outline is unusually good for this year, and students are encouraged to take part in order to improve their skills. It is predicted that the competition will be fierce, and those who are determined on the team, and those interested, are urged to sign up.

Resilience seems to have an edge in the towns, strength seems to be the order of the day. And in the Board of Education’s annual report, the main thing mentioned the previous year’s men have shown unusual promise and they will still be at an advantageous position in the city next year. The city’s education is receiving all the help it can in order to be successful. But all varieties joke is ever heroes.
