Mr. Kresser's reasons for the circulation of the petition is very strong in some measure decrease student indifference. If so, either anrosse systems, but would rather create some interest in student

during College vacations

during the active political season, the battles begun in campaigns in any form whatever. Whether under this ruling THE TECH

2. The student body has by a few majority has enough interest in the elections of the Executive Committee to make such an interest worthwhile. It is hoped that the encouragement of active campaigning will bring more students into the government of their college. It has been stated by some that the removal of this section from the Constitution would permit elections by the Executive Committee, and that this would be a very bad thing. Such a position is incorrect. It is to be hoped that the encour-

3. The student body has by a few majority has enough interest in the elections of the Executive Committee to make such an interest worthwhile. It is hoped that the encouragement of active campaigning will bring more students into the government of their college. It has been stated by some that the removal of this section from the Constitution would permit elections by the Executive Committee, and that this would be a very bad thing. Such a position is incorrect. It is to be hoped that the encour-

under present conditions one dares not recommend a can-

THE TECH: A Record of Continuous Progress for Over Fifty Years

A Record of Continuous Progress for Over Fifty Years

a good supporting cast adds to the success of the series. When the Barrymores do a thing, they do it well. The picture opens with the usual Holly-

N.B. (The two paragraphs next above, giving the name and address of a candidate for any of the elective offices of the Institute, must be cut out, and placed in the ballot box at New York.)

Mr. Kresser's reasons for the circulation of the petition is very strong in some measure decrease student indifference. If so, either an

in some measure decrease student indifference. If so, either an

in some measure decrease student indifference. If so, either an