I was not absolutely positive on the settlement, Chairman of the Institute Councillor removed it from the list of recognizee.

It is among Institute activities could not be definitely learned last evening. There is very little chance of hoping statement:

General Manager, issued the follow~ing statement:

“Develop Integrity and Character.” Dr. Compton urges incoming Students

HINTS AT DISHONEST POLITICAL METHODS AS SERIOUS MENACE

Says Government is Imperiled By Officials Who Refuse

Cites Professional Aims

We hope that you have and will further realize the importance of the character that you will act honorably and truly and that you will realize that you will live happily with your fellows. We believe that you can and will do it. You will be quick to recognize and appreciate the high ideal of integrity is a great asset to society. We should strongly encourage and support those who do likewise,” he advised them.

The meeting, which is held annually, as an official welcome to the incoming class, was held in room 10-256 and included the entire class. Professor Woods, chairman of the finance committee, addressed the new men, urging them to strive for close relationships both with their classmates and their instructors. He commented certain rules for success at the Institute, concluding with a plea to keep up a high standard of work through.

Stresses Fundamental Honesty

After welcoming the students on behalf of the administration and faculty of Technology, President Compton said:

“T wish this afternoon, to stimulate some active thinking, on your part, on the subject of honesty — fundamental honesty. By this, I do not refer particularly to such things as obeying the law and honest methods of avoiding laboratory work, and the like. I mean something more real in advance anything which I call honesty. I mean to use as the best form of will, not abusing the confidence that is regrd. With it we have no patience and give no leniency. With it we have a more dangerous and insidious type of dishonesty, and I will illustrate it in politics, in business, in your profession, and in your school life.

Honesty In Economy

"During the past two years, everyone has been aware of the economy of business. Industries and individuals have been forced to be economical. Similarly our government must practice such economy. Honesty in business is also subject to the same economic laws. Political candidates and organizations have a great advantage in their platforms. Non-partisan politics have been a great help for the government. We see in many cases a more pretense at honesty. We cannot say that we have a more dangerous and insidious type of dishonesty, and I will illustrate it in politics, in business, in your profession, and in your school life.
