It Isn’t Often . . .

the official undergraduate newspaper to furnish them with all the happenings of a busy school. In all fields, scholastic extra-curricular, social, sports, and general news, THE TECH continues to present the most interesting occurrences of the day. Accuracy and good taste govern all of its columns. No wonder that it stands today among the foremost of student activities, “written by Technology students, Technology students, for Technology students.”

Here is an opportunity to join an activity that has already earned a distinguished place in the life of the Institute. Here is an opportunity to make contacts with all important members of undergraduate life, as a member of the newspaper staff.

Act Now! There are still positions open in all departments for bright, ambitious men. Drop into the office in Walker Memorial at any time and talk things over. Your life at the Institute is not complete without participation in an activity.
