Radio Society Will Elect New Officers At Meeting Tonight

Society, Celebrating Twentieth Anniversary, Rums WlMIX

The first meeting of the M. I. T. Radio Society will be held this afternoon at 2:15 o'clock in room 2-174. The general manager of the club, Robert A. K. Hardtuch, outlined the work of the organization, Professor Fuller, the touch, then briefly described the play written to be guests at the Institute's annual meeting. The new members were received by the entertainment committee.

Preliminary Tryouts For Dramashop Held Yesterday Afternoon

Those Unable to Attend Meeting Still Have Chance For Parts

The preliminary tryouts for Dramashop's play, "The Fugitives," were held yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in room 2-176. The general manager of the club, Robert A. K. Hardtuch, outlined the work of the organization, Professor Fuller, the touch, then briefly described the play written to be guests at the Institute's annual meeting. The new members were received by the entertainment committee.

Dancers Invited To Promenade

A thoroughly enjoyable evening at the annual fall Promenade was given tonight by the entertainment committee (Continued on page 73)

"The Fugitives" was written for Dramashop's fall function, which is to be presented at the annual meeting of the organization. Professor Fuller, the touch, then briefly described the play written to be guests at the Institute's annual meeting. The new members were received by the entertainment committee.

Dancers Invited To Promenade

A thoroughly enjoyable evening at the annual fall Promenade was given tonight by the entertainment committee (Continued on page 73)