A gain this freshman in the Dormitories are required to render certain services to upper classes. Rules issued to the new men include that they shall keep a supply of nickels, speak for the doubles, and open the doors for the new men. It is open to question.

If pledging were delayed until the second term, the fraternities, as we all know, would not be able to make a grand sale to the freshmen. The Freshman Dormitory Committee is in charge of the execution of the rules laid down by the Freshman Dormitory Committee are in-keeping with the new man who has come to the Institute. The object of any set of rules is to have the new man include that they shall keep a supply of nickels, speak for the doubles, and open the doors for the new men. It is open to question.

Junior Registration Increases

The freshman registration for 1931-32 has been released. The number of freshmen for 1931-32 was 503. The corresponding figures for the previous year were 498. This represents an increase of 5 freshmen. The number of freshmen thus registered is 32% of the number of upper classmen. The number of upper classmen is 1530. The number of freshmen is 503.

The freshman registration for 1931-32 has been released. The number of freshmen for 1931-32 was 503. The corresponding figures for the previous year were 498. This represents an increase of 5 freshmen. The number of freshmen thus registered is 32% of the number of upper classmen. The number of upper classmen is 1530. The number of freshmen is 503.

The Spartan magazine is serially published for the benefit of the Spartan Press. The Spartan magazine is serially published for the benefit of the Spartan Press. The Spartan magazine is serially published for the benefit of the Spartan Press. The Spartan magazine is serially published for the benefit of the Spartan Press. The Spartan magazine is serially published for the benefit of the Spartan Press. The Spartan magazine is serially published for the benefit of the Spartan Press. The Spartan magazine is serially published for the benefit of the Spartan Press. The Spartan magazine is serially published for the benefit of the Spartan Press.