Engineers Rated As Contenders
By Experts In Annual Championships

FRISBIES ALSO ENTERED

With an excellent chance of taking second place, eight members of Tech's sailing and swimming teams are competing this afternoon in the twentieth annual cross-country run of the New England Interscholastic Athletic Association. The race is to take place at Franklin Park, over a five-mile course.

Sailing Team

The sailing team will be matched against teams from New Hampshire, Bowdoin, Denison, and Trinity. Nicholas, Hall, Orchard, Runkle, and Murray Brown are the starters for the Engineers, four of whom will run last fall's race. In all, about 21 flights are expected. The number of competitors is not limited.

Swimming Team

In addition to those four engineers, Franklin Field will also be represented by the following swimmers: Captain John Barrett, John Smith, Runkle, Atkinson, Goodsell, Walcott, and Ware. The swimmers are competing for school place.

FOSSETT IMPLIES FVATRATIvE MEN ARE SUPERIOR TO DORM RESIDENTS

Seams Dorm Leadership

Richard L. Fosssett, '33, president of the Senior Class, chairman of the Student Senate, and member of the Board of Directors of the Scabbard and Blade Society, has declared in an interview with the Senior weekly that dormitory residents are superior to dormitory residents and that it will take at least twenty years for the dorm residents to be able to excel in many areas.

In accordance with the Corporation's procedure in finding a job and as to the industries offering the best prospects, Mr. Johnson, president of the H. A. Johnson Company, guest speaker at the first dinner meeting of Cooperative X.V. tomorrow evening at 6:30 o'clock in the banquet hall of the Hotel Continental in Cambridge, Mr. Johnson is also a former chairman of the Boston Unemployment Commission. The speaker will explain make specific suggestions to those present on finding a job and to the industries offering the best prospects for employment.

The meeting is scheduled to adjourn at 8:30 o'clock, although Mr. Johnson is willing to stay later to answer specific questions from those present.

In accordance with the Corporation's policy, the cost of the dinner has been kept down to one dollar. Return tickets from the national elections will be an additional one dollar.

This leaves $901.90 subscribed by the money to the various departments. This was only a mild slap on the member of that organization.
