QUADRANGLE CLUB TO ENFORCE TIE RULING

In the authorization to assist in the enforcement of the rules, which was given at the Quadrangle Club meeting Thursday, the club was given the right to take action either alone or under the direction and in co-operation with the Freshman Rules Committee of which Louis P. Holladay, III, 34, is chairman.

The motion introduced at the Institute Committee to permit the Quadrangle Club to assist in the enforcement of Freshman rules was made by Hal L. Bemis, 35, a member of both the Freshman Rules Committee and the Quadrangle Club.

Helped Last Year

From James B. Wadhams, 34, a member of the Quadrangle Club last year, it was learned that during last fall semester, a group attending Freshman lectures, took the names of those without ties, and mailed postcards of warning to the offenders.

What steps are to be taken this year to assist the Freshman Rules Committee and to assure a stricter observance of that portion of the Freshman rules relating to the wearing of the tie? The tie will be decided at the meeting of the Quadrangle Club to be held next week.

GLIDER BLOWN ABOUT BY WINDS SATURDAY

that the wind made it quite a struggle. Several beginners were then given a trial for the ship. One, who perhaps, climbed steeply to a height of about 20 feet before turning loose the rope. At this height the glider slid off on one wing, and dived down in a heavy, cracking a wing spar in two.

It is probable, however, that the glider will be repaired and ready to fly on Armistice Day, Nov. 11. So far, only one or two of the new members have turned up for gliding on the appointed day, and a larger turnout is expected next time. The only way in which the new members can realize anything on the investment of their equipment is to have the ship fee be taken advantage of to learn gliding.

DORM MEN INFERIOR IMPLIED BY FOSSETT

School fully realized the truth of his stirring his statement in such a light as to come present and added that perhaps if he were rewriting the article he would temper his statement somewhat. Nevertheless he insisted that practically every student in the statement and that he rather ought to reflect on this opinion.

Whether or not every student or practically every student does feel the present superiority of fraternity men to dormitory residents, as Fossett believes, will only become apparent by the manner in which the article is received when the publication goes on the stands next Wednesday.

GLOBE'S TOASTED CIGARETTES

No raw tobaccos in Luckies—that’s why they’re so mild

We buy the finest, the very finest tobaccos in all the world—but that does not explain why folks everywhere regard Lucky Strike as the mildest cigarette. The fact is, we never overlook the truth that “Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild”—so these fine tobaccos, after proper aging and mellowing, are then given the benefit of that Lucky Strike purifying process, described by the words—“It’s toasted”. That’s why folks in every city, town and hamlet say that Luckies are such mild cigarettes.
