Swimming Prospects

I-arsity and freshman teams turning

The techniques wish to announce that proofs of the senior pictures will be available in the Main Lobby next Thursday and Friday. An attractive young junior team will be stationed at a desk to show the seniors the proofs, and receive those that they wish to return.

Attention is also called to the box labeled "Technique Informal" placed in the Main Lobby and in the dorms. Men contributing snapshots of their friends in the Institute or at the Intercollegiate Championships next spring.

Captain Lou Flanders and John Michaud are expected to give a very good account of a recent operation for ap- aneser in the breast stroke, although that it seems quite probable that the Institute record in this event will feel the loss of Turner, last year's captain, who placed second last year. Vaughn, who will not compete this season on account of a recent operation for ap-

Eaton, who also strengthened the team, has been a highly successful one.

He has been a brilliant player in the singles and doubles play, and is capable of handling the best at the National Tournament. Flanders, Turner, and Lykes received

Winners of Field Day Events

Winners of the Field Day events were announced by the Field Day Committee last week.

The winners of the running events were: G. E. Valley, first; J. W. Libby, second; G. F. Shute, third.

The winners of the jumping events were: W. Boyd, first; W. H. Plage, second; R. A. Gittens, third.

The winners of the throwing events were: D. F. Taylor, first; F. R. Hatch, second; W. Grosser, third.

The winners of the hurdle events were: P. S. Clarke, first; I. E. Fried, second; W. Holman, third.

The winners of the tug-of-war event were: G. K. Crosby, first; L. P. Holla, second; R. H. Matchett, third.

The winners of the shuttle race were: J. J. Demo, first; F. R. Wil- liams, second; O. E. Zwanzig, third.

The winners of the orienteering event were: H. J. Orgozaly, first; A. D. Edmonds, second; D. J. Crandall, third.

The winners of the relay race were: G. K. Crosby, first; L. P. Holla, second; R. H. Matchett, third.

The winners of the tug-of-war event were: G. K. Crosby, first; L. P. Holla, second; R. H. Matchett, third.

The winners of the orienteering event were: H. J. Orgozaly, first; A. D. Edmonds, second; D. J. Crandall, third.

The winners of the relay race were: G. K. Crosby, first; L. P. Holla, second; R. H. Matchett, third.

The winners of the tug-of-war event were: G. K. Crosby, first; L. P. Holla, second; R. H. Matchett, third.

The winners of the orienteering event were: H. J. Orgozaly, first; A. D. Edmonds, second; D. J. Crandall, third.

The winners of the relay race were: G. K. Crosby, first; L. P. Holla, second; R. H. Matchett, third.

The winners of the tug-of-war event were: G. K. Crosby, first; L. P. Holla, second; R. H. Matchett, third.

The winners of the orienteering event were: H. J. Orgozaly, first; A. D. Edmonds, second; D. J. Crandall, third.

The winners of the relay race were: G. K. Crosby, first; L. P. Holla, second; R. H. Matchett, third.

The winners of the tug-of-war event were: G. K. Crosby, first; L. P. Holla, second; R. H. Matchett, third.

The winners of the orienteering event were: H. J. Orgozaly, first; A. D. Edmonds, second; D. J. Crandall, third.

The winners of the relay race were: G. K. Crosby, first; L. P. Holla, second; R. H. Matchett, third.