RIFLE TEAM WINS FROM MARINES IN OPENING CONTEST

Barnes Out Navy Shooter By Alphonse F. Crick Is High Screer

SOPHOMORE DOES WELL

Technique's varsity rifle team started out its season on the right foot by defeating the marines from the Charleston Navy Yard, 174 - 147. It was a tip and trick match of the day, with the winner not being decided until the last man had shot. The lead changed hands at least a half dozen times, with the score of the match. RILEY, a sop, the big.

Once again, however, the Bia.

The management has issued a schedule of events which are sponsored by the club. This schedule includes several concerts presented by all the various groups comprising the Instrumental Clubs, and the Technion, the dance agencies. These groups will be heard at least once in the schedule of concerts.

Rally, the complete schedule of concerts and teas for this year, which has been sent to the members of the Tech team, is as follows:

The institute Committee.

The Tech wind will tear through its opponents, who will be led to slaughter next Saturday.

THE TECH team is led by those men who have been elected into the College of Engineers, the next highest honor that can be bestowed upon a student. The Tech team is composed of O'Brien and Feustel as forwards, Oldham and Sysko as guards, Hamilton, and "Ripper" Wise will be at center, and McIver at center played practically.

February 27 -- March 19

Second Sunday Concert, March 10

First Sunday Concert, February 27

Technology-Simonsw Orchestra

Although the membership has increased, the Tech team is still open for men who can prove them capable of performing as soloists.

Second Sunday Concert, March 10

The Musical Clubs also announced that although the membership had increased, the Tech team was still open for men who can prove them capable of performing as soloists.

THE TECH team is led by those men who have been elected into the College of Engineering, the next highest honor that can be bestowed upon a student. The Tech team is composed of O'Brien and Feustel as forwards, Oldham and Sysko as guards, Hamilton, and "Ripper" Wise will be at center, and McIver at center played practically.

February 27 - March 19

Second Sunday Concert, March 10

First Sunday Concert, February 27

Technology-Simonsw Orchestra

Although the membership has increased, the Tech team is still open for men who can prove them capable of performing as soloists.

THE TECH team is led by those men who have been elected into the College of Engineering, the next highest honor that can be bestowed upon a student. The Tech team is composed of O'Brien and Feustel as forwards, Oldham and Sysko as guards, Hamilton, and "Ripper" Wise will be at center, and McIver at center played practically.

February 27 - March 19

Second Sunday Concert, March 10

First Sunday Concert, February 27

Technology-Simonsw Orchestra

Although the membership has increased, the Tech team is still open for men who can prove them capable of performing as soloists.

THE TECH team is led by those men who have been elected into the College of Engineering, the next highest honor that can be bestowed upon a student. The Tech team is composed of O'Brien and Feustel as forwards, Oldham and Sysko as guards, Hamilton, and "Ripper" Wise will be at center, and McIver at center played practically.

February 27 - March 19

Second Sunday Concert, March 10

First Sunday Concert, February 27

Technology-Simonsw Orchestra

Although the membership has increased, the Tech team is still open for men who can prove them capable of performing as soloists.

THE TECH team is led by those men who have been elected into the College of Engineering, the next highest honor that can be bestowed upon a student. The Tech team is composed of O'Brien and Feustel as forwards, Oldham and Sysko as guards, Hamilton, and "Ripper" Wise will be at center, and McIver at center played practically.

February 27 - March 19

Second Sunday Concert, March 10

First Sunday Concert, February 27

Technology-Simonsw Orchestra

Although the membership has increased, the Tech team is still open for men who can prove them capable of performing as soloists.

THE TECH team is led by those men who have been elected into the College of Engineering, the next highest honor that can be bestowed upon a student. The Tech team is composed of O'Brien and Feustel as forwards, Oldham and Sysko as guards, Hamilton, and "Ripper" Wise will be at center, and McIver at center played practically.

February 27 - March 19

Second Sunday Concert, March 10

First Sunday Concert, February 27

Technology-Simonsw Orchestra

Although the membership has increased, the Tech team is still open for men who can prove them capable of performing as soloists.

THE TECH team is led by those men who have been elected into the College of Engineering, the next highest honor that can be bestowed upon a student. The Tech team is composed of O'Brien and Feustel as forwards, Oldham and Sysko as guards, Hamilton, and "Ripper" Wise will be at center, and McIver at center played practically.

February 27 - March 19

Second Sunday Concert, March 10

First Sunday Concert, February 27

Technology-Simonsw Orchestra

Although the membership has increased, the Tech team is still open for men who can prove them capable of performing as soloists.

THE TECH team is led by those men who have been elected into the College of Engineering, the next highest honor that can be bestowed upon a student. The Tech team is composed of O'Brien and Feustel as forwards, Oldham and Sysko as guards, Hamilton, and "Ripper" Wise will be at center, and McIver at center played practically.

February 27 - March 19

Second Sunday Concert, March 10

First Sunday Concert, February 27

Technology-Simonsw Orchestra

Although the membership has increased, the Tech team is still open for men who can prove them capable of performing as soloists.

THE TECH team is led by those men who have been elected into the College of Engineering, the next highest honor that can be bestowed upon a student. The Tech team is composed of O'Brien and Feustel as forwards, Oldham and Sysko as guards, Hamilton, and "Ripper" Wise will be at center, and McIver at center played practically.

February 27 - March 19

Second Sunday Concert, March 10

First Sunday Concert, February 27

Technology-Simonsw Orchestra

Although the membership has increased, the Tech team is still open for men who can prove them capable of performing as soloists.

THE TECH team is led by those men who have been elected into the College of Engineering, the next highest honor that can be bestowed upon a student. The Tech team is composed of O'Brien and Feustel as forwards, Oldham and Sysko as guards, Hamilton, and "Ripper" Wise will be at center, and McIver at center played practically.