BEAVER KEY STARTS NEW SPORTS CUSTOM

Assign Men To Escort Teams From Conceiving College

A new policy to be observed this year is that all men who are members of the Beaver Key Society will be required to report to the student board and receive a card with the number of the section to which they belong. This will be done to prevent any man from being assigned to a section that he does not wish to be in.

W. T. LEVITI PRODUCTS OF MAKING INTRICATE APPARATUS

PLAN FRESHMAN DANCE

The removal of the freshman bonfire, which commemorates the discarding of the cardinal and grey boa, leaves a certain after the first meeting of the freshman class officer held yesterday afternoon in the Faculty Reading Room of Walker Memorial. The only obstacles to the setting of a definite date are that permission is still needed from the Cambridge fire department and from the appropriate committee. According to a statement made by the first deputy of the fire department, in an interview with the author, "The officers of the class should make all necessary arrangements with the police department before they can be granted a permit from the Fire Chief."
