CONTINUANCE OF TECH SHOW VOTED
Institute Committee Decides Show To Continue; Provides Against Deficit

That Tech Show is to continue, was decided by the Institute Committee at its meeting yesterday, and the reason given was that the organization faces no deficits until 1936, and no deficit at all in its hands of the Institute Committee a bond of $350 against a possible deficit.

The age-old tradition of having the show on the same night as the Junior Prom is, as usual, gone with the wind. The show will be held March 15, at 2 p.m., and the Junior Prom is, as usual, March 17, at 8 p.m.

Several members of the Committee, however, expressed a feeling that the annual financial difficulties which occurred two years ago, are absent this year. The decision of the Committee was unanimous, and the vote was 10-0 against the deficit.

Abolish Publicity Committee on Plea Of Its President
Institute Committee Sanctions Selling of Non-Student Musicians

That functions of the Undergraduate Publicity Committee are adequately handled by another body, was decided at the meeting of the Institute Committee yesterday. A letter from Walter T. Lord, roll of the Committee, that the Publicity Committee was set up by the Committee, that no reason why it should not be continued.

A letter from the Committee, that the Association was able to obtain its ends by other means, was read by the secretary of the Committee. The committee of the Association was also obtained.

Abolishment of the Committee was decided by the Committee, that the Association was able to obtain its ends by other means, and it is decided that no reason why the Association should continue.

The Publicity Committee will continue, it is decided by the Committee, that the Association was able to obtain its ends by other means, and no reason why the Association should continue.

Abolishment of the Committee was decided by the Committee, that the Association was able to obtain its ends by other means, and it is decided that no reason why the Association should continue.