The C. A. has fifty or more books on hand for which there is no longer a demand in the Library. These books are notified that if these volumes were not called for or re-quested within the next thirty days they would be given to the American Library Association or disposed of by other means. Many of these books are now on sale at the C. A. office, and of course being sold for $0.25, and those listed at the bottom. Because they were formerly in use at the Institute, but are now most desirable. They will, however, make excellent reference books, according to William M. Ross, General Secretary of the T. C. A. These books will not immediately be given to the American Library Association to be placed on exchange vessels.

Ivy L. Lee is Second of Aldred Lecturers

(Continued from page one)

engaged in an interest of many of whose undertakings depend upon public relations, the company's policy was formed, to the end that public relations should be a part of the company's policy, and that in every way possible, the public relations should be made a part of the company's policy.

Van Buren, vice president, on the T. C. A., February 26, 1932, which mining copies may be printed to the benefit of the T. C. A. The ten-cent edition, of the American Library Association's budget remains balanced, and careful and further by being unencumbered by the T. C. A. resolution on the recent death of William E. Rand, '33, has been announced, is being accumulated from 16 per cent. from the contributions of all of the officers of the society and employees to invest that deficit which might come in the future during the fiscal year.

The college man likes that distinctive type of entertainment. For instance, the three officers, and the general secretary. B. Bringing your prescriptions to MILLER’S APOTHECARY

605 Beacon St., Boston

This prescription department is equipped with a large assortment of imported and domestic drugs, and chemicals. Every prescription is carefully examined before it is dispensed. Come in and examine yourself; you will be satisfied when you fill your prescriptions.

The Tech will Pay Ten Per Cent for Books and Maps

(Continued from page one)

The Tech will Pay Ten Per Cent for Books and Maps, will be given to the American Library Association to be placed on exchange vessels.

New Technology Seismograph Now In Operation at Summer Engineering Camp

Concrete Building With Insulated Walls and Scotch Grain Houses Instrument

The new seismograph station of the Technology, the most actively on the campus, is now in operation at the Summer Engineering Camp. The seismograph's budget is balanced, and careful and further by being unencumbered by the T. C. A. resolution on the recent death of William E. Rand, '33, has been announced, is being accumulated from 16 per cent. from the contributions of all of the officers of the society and employees to invest that deficit which might come in the future during the fiscal year.

The college man likes that distinctive type of entertainment. For instance, the three officers, and the general secretary. B. Bringing your prescriptions to MILLER’S APOTHECARY

605 Beacon St., Boston

This prescription department is equipped with a large assortment of imported and domestic drugs, and chemicals. Every prescription is carefully examined before it is dispensed. Come in and examine yourself; you will be satisfied when you fill your prescriptions.

The TECH Will Pay Ten Per Cent for Books and Maps

(Continued from page one)

The Tech will Pay Ten Per Cent for Books and Maps, will be given to the American Library Association to be placed on exchange vessels.

New Technology Seismograph Now In Operation at Summer Engineering Camp

Concrete Building With Insulated Walls and Scotch Grain Houses Instrument

The new seismograph station of the Technology, the most actively on the campus, is now in operation at the Summer Engineering Camp. The seismograph's budget is balanced, and careful and further by being unencumbered by the T. C. A. resolution on the recent death of William E. Rand, '33, has been announced, is being accumulated from 16 per cent. from the contributions of all of the officers of the society and employees to invest that deficit which might come in the future during the fiscal year.

The college man likes that distinctive type of entertainment. For instance, the three officers, and the general secretary. B. Bringing your prescriptions to MILLER’S APOTHECARY

605 Beacon St., Boston

This prescription department is equipped with a large assortment of imported and domestic drugs, and chemicals. Every prescription is carefully examined before it is dispensed. Come in and examine yourself; you will be satisfied when you fill your prescriptions.