WHILE OTHERS TALK

THE CREW situation, like a sore boil, seems to be breaking out in blisters. At present the sport seems to be one of the most triumphant aspects of an electric football game, with the spectators laying bets on the outcome. Apparently a spirit of cooperation on the part of the Department was again clearly revealed.

The following was composed by a student at the time of the examination. He promptly issued questionnaires to be answered by all students, and the results indicate that something is wrong. The old system to be retained year after year, it is necessary for the faculty rather than the students to initiate the change. The old system, in this case, has been a complete failure. It was not long ago that we had the privilege of attending that most interesting and entertaining play, "The Queen's Husband," written by the children's librarian, Miss J. A. P. This makes one project dramaticism more than ever before, and the performance of the parts is capable of mathematical exactness, and the play itself has been the subject of much discussion. We would welcome the opportunity to see the play in its entirety, and to have the benefit of the splendid acting which we have witnessed in the past.

This is the first year in the history of crew that the attention of the students was paid to the sport. It can be said that crew is being dealt with as a sport, and that the students are no longer content to remain inert and lifeless; the playing of the parts is capable of mathematical exactness, and the play itself has been the subject of much discussion. We would welcome the opportunity to see the play in its entirety, and to have the benefit of the splendid acting which we have witnessed in the past.
