RADIO CLUB’S TRIP DISCUSSED TODAY

Will Go To Round Hill, Estate Of Colonel E. H. Green

At a special meeting of the Radio Society at five o’clock this afternoon in Room 10-275, opportunity will be given to make reservations for the organization’s trip to Round Hill, scheduled for April 8.

Dr. Robert J. van de Graaff’s ten million volt generator, which is one of the features of the trip, is located in the estate’s blimp hangar. The standard frequency station and the particle photography apparatus are among the research equipment which will be shown to the visitors.

Is Col. Green’s Estate

Over 150 men are employed in running Round Hill which is the Cape Cod estate of Colonel E. H. Green. It is a small community in itself, having the most completely equipped airport in the state. The latest whiskey ship to leave New Bedford is anchored at the estate’s concrete pier. A guided tour will explain the ship’s equipment to the group. The entire estate will be shown, which leaves Walker Memorial at noon on Saturday to re-
