FRESHMAN P. T. CHASE
Complete Apprenticeship

After twenty long weeks of physical training classes, freshmen reached the end of the winter quarter and the last race of the season. The final band was held. Playing for the final race with standing room only, because of the team's recent success. The freshmen were the real underdogs. Until the war, a large margin in the man crew. Last year the freshmen did not row. The crew that raced Princeton averaged 177 pounds while the figures are usually last year. They rowed under that.

Although Princeton led in the varsity race, they were defeated by a large margin. In the last few years Denver has been considered as one of the mainstays by Coach Al Dunning, although he has only tasted the blood of victory once or twice. As in the case of the varsity race, Denver will be facing a crew which has not been rowing as much as Princeton.

The Technology lineups are: Van Cott, Pomeroy, Lucey; B. Cook, Stueck; J. Miller, Lowery; E. Lockman, Loomis; Streich, Cox, ceceania. The Technology crew is averaging 177 pounds while the freshmen are less than 170 pounds.

FRESHMAN VARSITY

Following the last pennant on the Charles River last Saturday morning, N. W. Slocum of Harvard Natick, N. J. was elected captain of the freshmen men's crew. This is the third pennant in a row for the freshmen men's crew. The freshmen men's crew has been rowing one year only that they were rowing. Slocum will become one of the freshmen men's captains next year. The freshmen men's crew was chosen after the freshmen men's captain was replaced by John Dunning.

The freshman P. T. classes opened their experience last year with the freshmen men's crew as one of the mainstays.

The freshmen men's crew has been rowing one year only that they were rowing. Slocum will become one of the freshmen men's captains next year. The freshmen men's crew was chosen after the freshmen men's captain was replaced by John Dunning.

The freshman P. T. classes opened their experience last year with the freshmen men's crew as one of the mainstays.

LUCAS IS WINNER OF EMERSON CUP

Ingalls Re-Elected Captain Of Squash; Annual Banquet Scheduled

Edward D. Lucas, '37, yesterday won the finals of the Emerson Trophy competition from James E. Parker, '34, and R. F. Eder, '36, and has since been rowing for the varsity for two years. This was the first time that Lucas had rowed in the varsity race, and the varsity had re-elected David Ingalls, '37, for another year of service. Last year, Lucas and Eder put up a spirited battle, and the winner, who included David Ingalls and Eder in the varsity crew, was given a special medal. Lucas and Eder put up a spirited battle, and the winner, who included David Ingalls and Eder in the varsity crew, was given a special medal. Lucas and Eder put up a spirited battle, and the winner, who included David Ingalls and Eder in the varsity crew, was given a special medal.

The varsity men's crew was re-elected in the Class D division, and took third place against three strong teams.

The combination of varsity and freshman gym team did a fine job in taking the New England junior championship against men from Dartmouth, Springfield, Fall River Boys' Club, and Loom Island High. Altogether the boys scored 45 points, with five places counting in each event. Captain T. H. Goodwin, Ken Dossel, and Jack Treadwell got firsts, while Gary Hartley, Wally Wise, and Jack Treadwell took second places.

Rushkoff won the annual student-loyalty bowling tournament by beating Holman in the final last night. The three-quarter totals were 1372 for Rushkoff to the 1272 of the varsity team. Clark and Wood of Holman were the individuals. Clark also maintained the best average over the whole league.

Tennis officially gets under way this coming Saturday when the freshman team meets Harvard. The week after that the varsity has a match with Tufts. Although Princeton led the varsity race, they were defeated by a large margin. In the last few years Denver has been considered as one of the mainstays by Coach Al Dunning, although he has only tasted the blood of victory once or twice. As in the case of the varsity race, Denver will be facing a crew which has not been rowing as much as Princeton.

The Technology lineups are: Van Cott, Pomeroy, Lucey; B. Cook, Stueck; J. Miller, Lowery; E. Lockman, Loomis; Streich, Cox, ceceania. The Technology crew is averaging 177 pounds while the freshmen are less than 170 pounds.

FRESHMAN VARSITY

Following the last pennant on the Charles River last Saturday morning, N. W. Slocum of Harvard Natick, N. J. was elected captain of the freshmen men's crew. This is the third pennant in a row for the freshmen men's crew. The freshmen men's crew has been rowing one year only that they were rowing. Slocum will become one of the freshmen men's captains next year. The freshmen men's crew was chosen after the freshmen men's captain was replaced by John Dunning.

The freshman P. T. classes opened their experience last year with the freshmen men's crew as one of the mainstays.

The freshmen men's crew has been rowing one year only that they were rowing. Slocum will become one of the freshmen men's captains next year. The freshmen men's crew was chosen after the freshmen men's captain was replaced by John Dunning.

The freshman P. T. classes opened their experience last year with the freshmen men's crew as one of the mainstays.