Pennsylvania. There, he was stage manager to the Institute Committee, hails from Philadelphia, and is a graduate of the Quadrangle Club, Beaver Key, and is treasurer of the Beaver Club, Beaver Key Society and of the varsity soccer team.

The other Sophomore member of the Institute Committee, Hal L. C. Donald Brown, ’36, the other freshman representative of the Institute Committee, comes from Rutherford, N. J. and graduated from the Rutherford High School. He is sports editor of THE TECH, and a member of the musical clubs. He plays the piano in the Glee Club and the bass viol in the Instrumental Club. He was also a member of the Sophomore Field football team.

John R. Ballard, ’35, re-elected to the Institute Committee, comes from Covington, Ga., and attended the Georgia Institute of Technology, where he was in the dramatic club, glee club, and the “Index”, the school magazine. Here he is on the soccer team, the Beaver Club, the Beaver Key, and is treasurer of the Inter-fraternity Conference.

Briggs On Freshman Crew

Philip G. Briggs, ’36, was re-elected at the Institute Committee meeting yesterday. Briggs is on the freshman crew, and a member of the first baseball team, the Beaver Club, and a member of the first soccer team. At Technology he is a member of the Quadrangle Club, Beaver Club, Beaver Key, Technology Boat Club, and a member of the first crew as a freshman, and the Juniors last year.

One of the freshman members of the Institute Committee, Hal L. Benda, ’35, is a native of Wayne, Pa. He graduated from the Haverford School, where he was in the dramatic club, glee club, and the “Index”, the school magazine. Here he is on the soccer team, the Beaver Club, the Beaver Key, and is treasurer of the Inter-fraternity Conference. Briggs is on the technology freshman crew.

One of the freshman members of the Institute Committee, John C. Austin, ’36, of Cheyenne, Wyoming, was re-elected in its annual spring meeting. At Technology he is treasurer of The Tech, a member of the Technique staff, and re-elected to the Institute Committee. He was also a member of Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity.

The other freshman member of the Institute Committee, John H. Gross, ’36, of Boston, Washington, prepared at the Lewis and Clark high school in Spokane. He was valedictorian of his class, editor-in-chief of the annual publication, and a member of the debating team. At Technology he is treasurer of Tech Show, a member of the Technique staff, and received his numerals on the gym team.

Briggs is on the freshman crew, and a member of the Institute Committee, comes from Rutherford, N. J. and graduated from the Rutherford High School. He is sports editor of THE TECH, and a member of the musical clubs. He plays the piano in the Glee Club and the bass viol in the Instrumental Club. He was also a member of the Sophomore Field football team.

John R. Ballard, ’35, re-elected to the Institute Committee, comes from Covington, Ga., and attended the Georgia Institute of Technology, where he was in the dramatic club, glee club, and the “Index”, the school magazine. Here he is on the soccer team, the Beaver Club, the Beaver Key, and is treasurer of the Inter-fraternity Conference.

Briggs On Freshman Crew

Philip G. Briggs, ’36, was re-elected at the Institute Committee meeting yesterday. Briggs is on the freshman crew, and a member of the first baseball team, the Beaver Club, and a member of the first soccer team. At Technology he is a member of the Quadrangle Club, Beaver Club, Beaver Key, Technology Boat Club, and a member of the first crew as a freshman, and the Juniors last year.

One of the freshman members of the Institute Committee, Hal L. Benda, ’35, is a native of Wayne, Pa. He graduated from the Haverford School, where he was in the dramatic club, glee club, and the “Index”, the school magazine. Here he is on the soccer team, the Beaver Club, the Beaver Key, and is treasurer of the Inter-fraternity Conference. Briggs is on the technology freshman crew.

One of the freshman members of the Institute Committee, John C. Austin, ’36, of Cheyenne, Wyoming, was re-elected in its annual spring meeting. At Technology he is treasurer of Tech Show, a member of the Technique staff, and received his numerals on the gym team.

Briggs is on the freshman crew, and a member of the Institute Committee, comes from Rutherford, N. J. and graduated from the Rutherford High School. He is sports editor of THE TECH, and a member of the musical clubs. He plays the piano in the Glee Club and the bass viol in the Instrumental Club. He was also a member of the Sophomore Field football team.

John R. Ballard, ’35, re-elected to the Institute Committee, comes from Covington, Ga., and attended the Georgia Institute of Technology, where he was in the dramatic club, glee club, and the “Index”, the school magazine. Here he is on the soccer team, the Beaver Club, the Beaver Key, and is treasurer of the Inter-fraternity Conference. Briggs is on the technology freshman crew.