SEAYER, TUCKER, JOPE STRATTON WIN PRIZE PAPERS

Judges Of Student Professional Papers Announced
By Prescott

SEMINALS THIS WEEK

Judges of the Stratton Prize papers, it was announced last week by Dean Samuel C. Prescott, will be Professor Henry L. Snyder of the English Department, Professor Donald S. Tucker of the Economics, and Mr. Ralph T. Jones, Business Manager of the Technology Review.

FRESHMAN RULES WILL BE CHANGED

Special Meeting Of Institute Committee To Consider
Proposals

As a result of the expression of opinion given at the spring elections last year, proposals to change the freshman rules will be brought before the Institute Committee on Education this week.

The proposals follow:

1. That the personnel of the committee be changed as follows: Chairmen, a senior; one junior member; and one underclassman.
2. That the tie be changed from a blue to a red and gold striped tie, with the colors remaining the same.
3. That the dress for freshmen be changed from a black suit, to a brown suit, and using a check list of approved suits.
4. That a board composed as follows shall act as a court in representing freshmen for lack of class spirit; Chairman of the Senior Class, Chairman of the Senior Class, Chairman of the Interfraternity Council, and the Junior Class.