MUSICAL CLUBS SEEK NEW MEN

Candidates for Management Are Desired by Publicity Manager Woolf

Having almost completed the campaign for new talent in their musical section, the Combined Musical Clubs announced yesterday through their publicity manager, Ralph A. Woolf, '35, that at present there are openings in their management staff for freshmen and sophomore candidates.

"The management of the clubs presents to an individual an opportunity to become well versed in any particular phase of management," says Woolf. "Any freshman or sophomore student who would like to partake of some of the work and play of the Musical Clubs kindly come to the office of the management on the third floor of Walker Memorial any night between 8 and 9 o'clock."

STUDENTS' CLUB CONDUCTS DANCE

Affair in Walker Was Attended by Foreign Students of Greater Boston

To create and foster a spirit of good will and understanding between foreign students who are enrolled in colleges of Greater Boston, the International Students' Club held an informal dance in the North Hall of Walker Memorial last Saturday. The affair, which lasted from 8 o'clock to midnight was attended by more than thirty-five couples. Varsity's Orchestra furnished the music for the festivities. Mr. James R. Watson, director of the club, and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Polkman of Fitchburg, and Mrs. Annetta Lawless of Dedham, served as chaperones at the dance. The club plans to hold a series of monthly socials or dances.

FIELD DAY DANCE WILL HAVE SAMMY LINERS ORCHESTRA

Dances Pledged for Originality

The Dormitory Dance Committee has made arrangements for the dance. The committee is known nationally, even internationally, for its original and novel dances. Last year, people in Australia heard of the dance in which the intelligence quotient of the girl controlled the admission price. This year, an article describing the dance in which the weight and the color of the hair of the girl fixed the entrance fee according to formula. Open House in the dorms will reign Wednesday, Oct. 19.

TECHNIQUE PHOTOS TO BE TAKEN SOON

Seniors Should Make Appointments

Seniors who wish to have their photographs taken in Technique should arrange to have them taken by making an appointment during any one of the weekly sessions of the week of Oct. 23, in the Main Lobby.

This is the only chance for Seniors to have the photographs taken, and the price is $1.00, which is as usual one dollar. The last three years no senior class has had individual pictures of more than 75 per cent of its members in the Technique.

FIELD OF NATIONAL RECOVERY ACT—ON THE DUSK

Phases of National Recovery Act Will Be Subject for Discussion

Dr. J. C. Hunsaker, head of the department of Mechanical Engineering, will speak on various phases of the National Recovery Act at the Graduate Club meeting at 6 o'clock tomorrow, in the North Hall of Walker Memorial. Dr. Hunsaker was one of Gen. Eugu S. Johnson's close associates in organizing the NRA last summer.

All members of the graduate house, graduates bring in dormitories, and students who applied for admissions to the dormitories are to attend.
