DR. BUSH SPEAKS TO JUNIOR N. R. A.

"It is only by the conscientious thought, study, and effort of those who labor for the general good that a democracy such as ours can find its devious way back to prosperity," stated Dr. Vannevar Bush, vice-president of the Institute, in addressing the meeting of the Junior N. R. A. held here last Friday.

"There is honest difference of opinion," he said, "as to methods of recovery and of removal of undesirable features of our industrial life. "It is not our function..."

MILITARY SOCIETY PLEDGES AT DANCE

The pledging of about 30 new members to the Scabbard and Blade Society took place at a dance held in Walker Memorial last Friday evening. The dance was interrupted at midnight to perform the elaborate ceremony, which greatly impressed the participants.
