Promising Season

Return of Wetherell, Collins, Carey Brings Promises

With all of last year's varsity back, Coach Tommy Ransor is looking forward to a very successful boxing season for the institute. This follows the presentation of the national intercollegiate championships to the tennis team. Wetherell, Collins, and Carey have all been appointed as assistant managers for the 1933-34 season.

Open Forum

The open forum is a place where the students can voice their opinions and concerns. It is a platform for discussion and debate, allowing the community to engage in meaningful conversation on various topics. The forum is an opportunity for students to express their thoughts, ideas, and perspectives, fostering a sense of community and collective decision-making. It emphasizes the importance of open dialogue and the power of collective action in addressing issues and promoting positive change.
