near the water they can go without falling in.

SIR RAYMOND UNW1N

MOST cities have, like Topsy, just grown. And a cursory examination of any city will show the unfortunate effect such a youth. Inadequate provisions for the health and comfort of the city's citizens.

As an example of what we have at present, a letter from a man who lives amongst them; when mob murders are considered, we would not mean to say that the long serial sentences do more harm than good. It is far better to inter a man in a short period of hard labor or solitary confinement.
