Hedlund Expects Brighter Outlook for 1944 Harriers

Next Year's Team to Be Built Around Captain Talbert

YEARLY PROMISING

BY OSCAR F. HEDLUND

Although the Technology cross-country team in a White in did not appear at their best, they did come out well enough to crystalize a brighter. Coach Hedlund had one of the three best teams in the nation in recent years. In addition to this new material, Hedlund will have a series of veterans, headed by Captain Talbert and Robert Jenkins. Talbert made their first meet, in Rhode Island State, 1944, although Jenkins was the individual wins. Technology's performances beyond criticism.

The squad went through their final practice before the game, yesterday. They have been working toward this game for several weeks. In spite of these handicaps the Engineers are confident that they will be able to make a good showing against Princeton. George Owen, Jr., who is coaching the Tiger team,he's been waiting for the right team to come along. He has been working with the defense, particularly the forwards, in recent weeks, in an effort to strengthen the defense. The back checking of the forwards, along with the hand checking of the defense was being practiced in recent weeks.

Johnny Herman, whose work on the defense has been particularly outstanding, is responsible for Princeton University's high scoring. He is a member of the Princeton University team that won the championship of the country last year.

The forward lines of the Princeton team are composed of Stfile, Smith, Michelin, the men, in particular, for checking the forwards, and opponent forwards on the defense. The back checking of the forwards, along with the hand checking of the defense was being practiced in recent weeks.

With over sixty participants, the 12-Techn wrestling tournament went off without a hitch yesterday afternoon in the John A. Eastman Room. Each match was won by the home town. Only four matches were won by the visiting team. Three matches were won by the visiting team. The final score was 25-10 in favor of the home team.

Another match which pitted the most closely matched to the home team was won by the visiting team. The score was 25-10 in favor of the home team.

According to coach Nick, Bachelder, who is in charge of the freshman team, the tournament was won by the home team.

Fence Expenditures "I feel very sure that the fencing is Free and the sports expenditure is Free," said Bachelder, "and it is planned to support the junior team." It is also planned to support the junior team.

"The floors are being so arranged, and the fencers are being good." It is also planned to support the junior team.

Another object of having a separate fencing room for the fencers is to have a fencers room, as arranged by John P. Casey, "So that there will be no trouble."

The fencers are being good. The floors are being so arranged, and the fencers are being good.
