Squash Five Wins Fourth Straight

Trinity Falls Victim by Score of 4 to 1 in Saturday Game

Leading but one match out of the four played, the varsity squash team ousted Trinity on Saturday afternoon to keep its intercollegiate slate perfect for the year. The score of the meet was 4 to 1, the first match being won by Kent by default. The won was as follows: Eder was defeated by Hollins, 3-2; Newman defeated Hall, 3-4; Ingalls defeated Sutten, 3-1; and West defeated Buhrow, 3-1.

The team will have a return match at Trinity on February 15. Dartmouth will entertain Technology in a return match on February 21. On March 3, three men from Technology, who have not yet been chosen, will compete in the individual Championship at Trinity.

Technology did not win the Eastern Intercollegiate title by defeating Trinity on Saturday, but the team has a chance to claim the title.

At last, we have found the most unhappy man. A search with a towline—The Merionite.

TECH NATATORS
DOWN B. U., 40-31

Swimming a steady all-around race against Boston University, the Technology nataters were able to gain a 40 to 31 victory in spite of the brilliant showing of Captain Frank B. U., in taking three first places. Besides winning the relay, the Engineers had only two first places, as compared to B. U.'s five, but the deciding points to win the meet were made up in second and third places.

The summaries are as follows:

Swimming: Capt. Frank B. U. (T), 10 points; Bob Curley (T), 7; George Curley (T), 3; Bill Murphy (T), 2; Bill McPhail (T), 2; B. U.'s points: 1st, Curley (B. U.), 10; 2nd, Curley (B. U.), 7; 3rd, Steele (B. U.), 3.

Diving: Captain Clark B. U. (B. U.), 10 points; Clark B. U. had two first-place finishes in the diving, while the Engineers had one.

The score at half time was a 44 to 37 victory in spite of the brilliant showing of Capt. Frank B. U., in taking three first places.

FENCERS LOSE

Harvard Meet

Both the varsity and freshman fencing teams were overwhelmed last Saturday afternoon in the opening meet of the year by a superior Harvard team. The varsity score was 12 to 4, while the freshman score stood at 7 to 2. Techs was the only Engineer to win in the falls, taking two of his matches. Martin went through the afternoon with wins with the epee and saber and garnered a

MEDIATOR

Basketball

McCarthy Changes Lineup After Hangar Gym Loss

Showing great improvement over the form they displayed in their first meeting, the Technology varsity basketball team bowed to Tufts by 57-42 defeat at the Hangar Gym last Saturday night.

The score at half time was a 10-12 deadlock, and it was not till near the end of the game, when two of the Engineers were forced out on personal fouls, that the Medford quintet forged ahead.

The work of McIver and Murphy, who played the center position for the Beavers, was not particularly impressive Saturday, with the result that Coach McCarthy has announced a change in the starting lineup for the next game, which will be played this afternoon in the Walker Gym.

The summaries are as follows:

Both the varsity and freshman fencing teams were overwhelmed last Saturday afternoon in the opening meet of the year by a superior Harvard team. The varsity score was 12 to 4, while the freshman score stood at 7 to 2. Techs was the only Engineer to win in the falls, taking two of his matches. Martin went through the afternoon with wins with the epee and saber and garnered a

MEDIATOR

Basketball

McCarthy Changes Lineup After Hangar Gym Loss

Showing great improvement over the form they displayed in their first meeting, the Technology varsity basketball team bowed to Tufts by 57-42 defeat at the Hangar Gym last Saturday night.

The score at half time was a 10-12 deadlock, and it was not till near the end of the game, when two of the Engineers were forced out on personal fouls, that the Medford quintet forged ahead.

The work of McIver and Murphy, who played the center position for the Beavers, was not particularly impressive Saturday, with the result that Coach McCarthy has announced a change in the starting lineup for the next game, which will be played this afternoon in the Walker Gym.

The summaries are as follows:

Both the varsity and freshman fencing teams were overwhelmed last Saturday afternoon in the opening meet of the year by a superior Harvard team. The varsity score was 12 to 4, while the freshman score stood at 7 to 2. Techs was the only Engineer to win in the falls, taking two of his matches. Martin went through the afternoon with wins with the epee and saber and garnered a

MEDIATOR

Basketball

McCarthy Changes Lineup After Hangar Gym Loss

Showing great improvement over the form they displayed in their first meeting, the Technology varsity basketball team bowed to Tufts by 57-42 defeat at the Hangar Gym last Saturday night.

The score at half time was a 10-12 deadlock, and it was not till near the end of the game, when two of the Engineers were forced out on personal fouls, that the Medford quintet forged ahead.

The work of McIver and Murphy, who played the center position for the Beavers, was not particularly impressive Saturday, with the result that Coach McCarthy has announced a change in the starting lineup for the next game, which will be played this afternoon in the Walker Gym.

The summaries are as follows:

Both the varsity and freshman fencing teams were overwhelmed last Saturday afternoon in the opening meet of the year by a superior Harvard team. The varsity score was 12 to 4, while the freshman score stood at 7 to 2. Techs was the only Engineer to win in the falls, taking two of his matches. Martin went through the afternoon with wins with the epee and saber and garnered a

MEDIATOR

Basketball

McCarthy Changes Lineup After Hangar Gym Loss

Showing great improvement over the form they displayed in their first meeting, the Technology varsity basketball team bowed to Tufts by 57-42 defeat at the Hangar Gym last Saturday night.

The score at half time was a 10-12 deadlock, and it was not till near the end of the game, when two of the Engineers were forced out on personal fouls, that the Medford quintet forged ahead.

The work of McIver and Murphy, who played the center position for the Beavers, was not particularly impressive Saturday, with the result that Coach McCarthy has announced a change in the starting lineup for the next game, which will be played this afternoon in the Walker Gym.

The summaries are as follows:

Both the varsity and freshman fencing teams were overwhelmed last Saturday afternoon in the opening meet of the year by a superior Harvard team. The varsity score was 12 to 4, while the freshman score stood at 7 to 2. Techs was the only Engineer to win in the falls, taking two of his matches. Martin went through the afternoon with wins with the epee and saber and garnered a

MEDIATOR

Basketball

McCarthy Changes Lineup After Hangar Gym Loss

Showing great improvement over the form they displayed in their first meeting, the Technology varsity basketball team bowed to Tufts by 57-42 defeat at the Hangar Gym last Saturday night.

The score at half time was a 10-12 deadlock, and it was not till near the end of the game, when two of the Engineers were forced out on personal fouls, that the Medford quintet forged ahead.

The work of McIver and Murphy, who played the center position for the Beavers, was not particularly impressive Saturday, with the result that Coach McCarthy has announced a change in the starting lineup for the next game, which will be played this afternoon in the Walker Gym.

The summaries are as follows:

Both the varsity and freshman fencing teams were overwhelmed last Saturday afternoon in the opening meet of the year by a superior Harvard team. The varsity score was 12 to 4, while the freshman score stood at 7 to 2. Techs was the only Engineer to win in the falls, taking two of his matches. Martin went through the afternoon with wins with the epee and saber and garnered a