Coach Cowan Expect Year Good Year
After Winter of Cage

The Varsity Golf team will officially open its season Wednesday afternoon at the Oakley Country Club in Watertown. Qualification rounds will be played on Friday afternoon at the Oakley course; all new members are invited to attend. Coach Jack Cowan, professional at Oakley, is in charge of the team this season and has everything in readiness.

Indoor cage matches were played last winter, but no dates have been set for the indoor matches this season. Cage matches will be played outdoors all through the spring months.

For the first time this spring, Bixby and Olsen will be paired at the top of the line in the hope of increasing the winning percentage of the team this year. Other members include

F. Bixby, 7; Olsen; Stroke, Johnson; 16; Doubles.

Haines Breaks Up Two Boats

While the Freshman heavy and lightweight varsity and 150 pound varsity crews were getting such large turnouts, are the turnouts of any of the classes at the Freshman level. These two teams were more than two full teams at yesterday's session. The Seniors, while getting such large turnouts, are keeping their teams better than they were in 1934, as evidenced by the increased numbers attending practices.

An added feature this year is the acceptance of a graduate student into the league. Through the efforts of Mr. J. G. Estes, instructor in the mathematics department at the Institute, such a student has been organized and will play its first contest on Thursday.

Grads. To Have Team

Estes Organizes Graduates

The schedule calls for one game for each undergraduate team and two games for each graduate team. It is expected by the chairman of the meeting, Mr. J. G. Estes, that the graduate teams will be a very strong feature in the league. The schedule is not final, as a few games will be played with the graduate teams.

Gift of 300 Books

At the same time it was also discovered that the 1933 intramural baseball team had passed in any report of the season's doings. Injustice to him it should be said that his report was turned in but was misplaced at the A. A. office. The document was recovered, but could not be placed in the proper file before the season began. It was also discovered that the 1933 intramural baseball champions, the members of the Class of '36 team had been awarded their trophies but had not made the beginning of the 1934-35 school year in September.

Competition

For the sake of the brevity of it, the names of the players are not given. However, it is expected that such an unofficial team might be formed for it is not yet too late to have games with college junior and varsity teams. With the start of the season, Mr. Estes has already shown his interest by holding together a team of graduate students, which might act in this capacity.

Inquiries into the possibilities of forming a football team to represent Tech, at least unofficially, have brought forth the reply that such a move is not feasible. Thus the official and unofficial football teams can remain under the control of the varsity and junior varsity teams.

As the season draws nearer, it is expected that the intramural sports will be played with greater enthusiasm than ever before. The varsity and junior varsity teams will have plenty of competition from the graduate students, and these graduate teams will do their best to carry on the traditions of the varsity teams.

SPORTS COMMENT

Recently there was printed in this column a statement to the effect that last year's baseball manager had apparently been negligent and had not kept the team up to the required standards. In Justice, it should be said that his report was turned in but was misplaced at the A. A. office. The document was recovered, but could not be placed in the proper file before the season began. It was also discovered that the 1933 intramural baseball champions, the members of the Class of '36 team, had been awarded their trophies but had not made the beginning of the 1934-35 school year in September.
