Presidents and Uncles May Join New Students

President K. T. Compton Will Give Overture at Welcome of Institute

Official welcome to entering alumni including transfers will be extended Monday night at the Alden Smoker which will be held in Walter Memorial Building at 6:30 P.M.

Fathers or uncles may accompany guests as guests. Admission will be free by ticket which may be obtained on Registration Day in the Main Lobby, Building 10.

The program will consist of a free dinner and entertainment, after which President Karl T. Compton will officially greet the guests and sort out the ward of the Institute. Master of ceremonies will be Fred Alcorn '35, a member of the Institute and student, author, and constantiner.

Professor Frederick O. Ferriss, Jr., will speak on educational possibilities, and Harry E. Worcester '37, a student at the Institute, complete program appears elsewhere in this issue. The last act of the evening will be a cappella by the Institute. The entertainment has been listed vaguely as "entertainment." (Continued on Page 2)
