FRESHMEN WIN CREW RACE

RALLIES CLOSE EVENTS BEFORE ANNUAL FIGHT

Dr. Samuel P. Mulliken, professor of chemistry, died at his home in Newton yesterday afternoon. He was 56 years old, a son, a daughter Katherine, two sons, two sisters, and a sister, Miss Mulliken of Newton, and a sister, Miss Mulliken of Newton.

Professor Mulliken, a graduate of the Institute in the class of 1898, was

JOE ANDY BLISS

Louie Pflanz, '35, Allan Winter Rowe on the part of the Institute's Advisory Council on athletics, and Walter H. Storkenoyer on the part of the student body. In the incident, an interesting examination program has been planned. Refreshments will be served at all hours.

Dr. Samuel P. Mulliken, professor of chemistry, died at his home in Newton yesterday afternoon. He was 56 years old, a son, a daughter Katherine, two sons, two sisters, and a sister, Miss Mulliken of Newton.

Professor Mulliken, a graduate of the Institute in the class of 1898, was

IO-ANDY BLISS

Louie Pflanz, '35, Allan Winter Rowe on the part of the Institute's Advisory Council on athletics, and Walter H. Storkenoyer on the part of the student body. In the incident, an interesting examination program has been planned. Refreshments will be served at all hours.

Dr. Samuel P. Mulliken, professor of chemistry, died at his home in Newton yesterday afternoon. He was 56 years old, a son, a daughter Katherine, two sons, two sisters, and a sister, Miss Mulliken of Newton.

Professor Mulliken, a graduate of the Institute in the class of 1898, was

FRESHMEN WIN CREW RACE

RALLIES CLOSE EVENTS BEFORE ANNUAL FIGHT

Dr. Samuel P. Mulliken, professor of chemistry, died at his home in Newton yesterday afternoon. He was 56 years old, a son, a daughter Katherine, two sons, two sisters, and a sister, Miss Mulliken of Newton.

Professor Mulliken, a graduate of the Institute in the class of 1898, was

JAMES W. CURLEY

Lt. Gov. Bacon and Ex-Mayor James M. Curley will Speak at Political Rally

Meeting Scheduled by 5:15 Club; With Political Background Of

And Analyze Organic Chemistry

And Relay Race

And a sister, Mulliken of Newton.

Dr. Samuel P. Mulliken, professor of chemistry, died at his home in Newton yesterday afternoon. He was 56 years old, a son, a daughter Katherine, two sons, two sisters, and a sister, Miss Mulliken of Newton.

Professor Mulliken, a graduate of the Institute in the class of 1898, was

JOE ANDY BLISS

Louie Pflanz, '35, Allan Winter Rowe on the part of the Institute's Advisory Council on athletics, and Walter H. Storkenoyer on the part of the student body. In the incident, an interesting examination program has been planned. Refreshments will be served at all hours.

Dr. Samuel P. Mulliken, professor of chemistry, died at his home in Newton yesterday afternoon. He was 56 years old, a son, a daughter Katherine, two sons, two sisters, and a sister, Miss Mulliken of Newton.

Professor Mulliken, a graduate of the Institute in the class of 1898, was

JAMES W. CURLEY

Lt. Gov. Bacon and Ex-Mayor James M. Curley will Speak at Political Rally

Meeting Scheduled by 5:15 Club; With Political Background Of

And Analyze Organic Chemistry

And Relay Race

And a sister, Mulliken of Newton.

Dr. Samuel P. Mulliken, professor of chemistry, died at his home in Newton yesterday afternoon. He was 56 years old, a son, a daughter Katherine, two sons, two sisters, and a sister, Miss Mulliken of Newton.

Professor Mulliken, a graduate of the Institute in the class of 1898, was

JAMES W. CURLEY

Lt. Gov. Bacon and Ex-Mayor James M. Curley will Speak at Political Rally

Meeting Scheduled by 5:15 Club; With Political Background Of

And Analyze Organic Chemistry

And Relay Race

And a sister, Mulliken of Newton.