GOOD STATES COACH
GYM TEAM OUTLOOK

season. Coach Halls Neudorf wa's ex-come out for the team. ber of promising freshmen who have cellent way the veterans have been tremelY confident of having a success-[Robert E., '37 and William M., '36, climber is back again; much to Tech's eran tumbler, high bar man and rope can encouraging sign; Jack Flaitz, vet-t'33, ace fiil the promise they have shown in rope climber is expected to bring stronger in tumbling by the presence advantage. The team is made still Tech gymnasts have had in many a

The coming season promises to be one of the most successful which the Gymnasts have had in many a many on the press." Coach Halls Neudorf began to work..." Coach C. Neudorf of the team.

The number of veterans is in itself guaranteed to help the team. The veternumber, high bar man and rope

The team is especially strong on the IVan Hamn, '3a, the captain, winner of the New Eng. A. A. U. Championships, both Junior and Senior meets.

The coming season promises to be
one of the most successful which the

The prospects of the team gained air against the team. The prospects of the team in the flying rings. He is also an excellent tumbler and rope man.

Mr. Alfred Baker Brown, the Soci-ic candidate for Governor, was the next speaker, and he devoted himself to an explanation of the principles for which the Socialist Party stands.

"Capitalism won't work under a New Deal, or an Old Deal," he said,
"since under that system, the employer has the whip-hand over the em-laborers are cut, the power of conning is vested in the hands of the owners. Therefore, the capitalist system breaks down every 8 or 10 years.

Chairman Walcott, who sat as judge for the day, introduced Mr.
Lewis, said that we must now own, but we have a Cooperative Ecoomy. "We must run industries, not for the workers, but for the people."

Loomis-Government Business is unavoidably delayed, as Judge Franklin Wilford's beneficent influence, and her indefatigable energy, are always at work. The prospects of the team were not much enhanced by the captain's words, but the veterans themselves are so anxious in the first place. The prospects of the team will be much better if the veterans will give their best. The team is challenged to a meeting with the veterans of the opposing team.

The number of veterans is in itself
important because the men have had in many a

The new machine will give exact results without any reductions in pay, until the Federal Government makes out

But we can't do that, not if we want a future for our children. "We must run industries, not for
the workers, but for the people."

Mr. Alfred Baker Brown, the Soci-
ic candidate for Governor, was the
next speaker, and he devoted himself
to an explanation of the principles for
which the Socialist Party stands.

"Capitalism won't work under a
New Deal, or an Old Deal," he said,
"since under that system, the employer has the whip-hand over the em-
laborers are cut, the power of con-
ning is vested in the hands of the
owners. Therefore, the capitalist system breaks down every 8 or 10
years.

Chairman Walcott, who sat as
judge for the day, introduced Mr.
Lewis, said that we must now
own, but we have a Cooperative Eco-

Loomis-Government Business is un-
avoidably delayed, as Judge Franklin
Wilford's beneficent influence, and
her indefatigable energy, are always
at work. The prospects of the team
were not much enhanced by the
captain's words, but the veterans
themselves are so anxious in the
first place. The prospects of the team
will be much better if the veterans
will give their best. The team is
challenged to a meeting with the
veterans of the opposing team.

The number of veterans is in itself
important because the men
have had in many a

The new machine will give exact results without
any reductions in pay, until the Federal Government makes out

But we can't do that, not if we want a
future for our children. "We must run
industries, not for
the workers, but for the people."

Mr. Alfred Baker Brown, the Soci-
ic candidate for Governor, was the
next speaker, and he devoted himself
to an explanation of the principles for
which the Socialist Party stands.

"Capitalism won't work under a New Deal, or an Old Deal," he said,
"since under that system, the em-
ployer has the whip-hand over the em-
laborers are cut, the power of con-
ning is vested in the hands of the
owners. Therefore, the capitalist system breaks down every 8 or 10
years.

Chairman Walcott, who sat as
judge for the day, introduced Mr.
Lewis, said that we must now
own, but we have a Cooperative Eco-

Loomis-Government Business is un-
avoidably delayed, as Judge Franklin
Wilford's beneficent influence, and
her indefatigable energy, are always
at work. The prospects of the team
were not much enhanced by the
captain's words, but the veterans
themselves are so anxious in the
first place. The prospects of the team
will be much better if the veterans
will give their best. The team is
challenged to a meeting with the
veterans of the opposing team.

The number of veterans is in itself
important because the men
have had in many a

The new machine will give exact results without
any reductions in pay, until the Federal Government makes out

But we can't do that, not if we want a
future for our children. "We must run
industries, not for
the workers, but for the people."

Mr. Alfred Baker Brown, the Soci-
ic candidate for Governor, was the
next speaker, and he devoted himself
to an explanation of the principles for
which the Socialist Party stands.

"Capitalism won't work under a
New Deal, or an Old Deal," he said,
"since under that system, the em-
ployer has the whip-hand over the em-
laborers are cut, the power of con-
ning is vested in the hands of the
owners. Therefore, the capitalist system breaks down every 8 or 10
years.

Chairman Walcott, who sat as
judge for the day, introduced Mr.
Lewis, said that we must now
own, but we have a Cooperative Eco-

Loomis-Government Business is un-
avoidably delayed, as Judge Franklin
Wilford's beneficent influence, and
her indefatigable energy, are always
at work. The prospects of the team
were not much enhanced by the
captain's words, but the veterans
themselves are so anxious in the
first place. The prospects of the team
will be much better if the veterans
will give their best. The team is
challenged to a meeting with the
veterans of the opposing team.

The number of veterans is in itself
important because the men
have had in many a

The new machine will give exact results without
any reductions in pay, until the Federal Government makes out

But we can't do that, not if we want a
future for our children. "We must run
industries, not for
the workers, but for the people."

Mr. Alfred Baker Brown, the Soci-
ic candidate for Governor, was the
next speaker, and he devoted himself
to an explanation of the principles for
which the Socialist Party stands.

"Capitalism won't work under a
New Deal, or an Old Deal," he said,
"since under that system, the em-
ployer has the whip-hand over the em-
laborers are cut, the power of con-
ning is vested in the hands of the
owners. Therefore, the capitalist system breaks down every 8 or 10
years.

Chairman Walcott, who sat as
judge for the day, introduced Mr.
Lewis, said that we must now
own, but we have a Cooperative Eco-

Loomis-Government Business is un-
avoidably delayed, as Judge Franklin
Wilford's beneficent influence, and
her indefatigable energy, are always
at work. The prospects of the team
were not much enhanced by the
captain's words, but the veterans
themselves are so anxious in the
first place. The prospects of the team
will be much better if the veterans
will give their best. The team is
challenged to a meeting with the
veterans of the opposing team.

The number of veterans is in itself
important because the men
have had in many a

The new machine will give exact results without
any reductions in pay, until the Federal Government makes out

But we can't do that, not if we want a
future for our children. "We must run
industries, not for
the workers, but for the people."

Mr. Alfred Baker Brown, the Soci-
ic candidate for Governor, was the
next speaker, and he devoted himself
to an explanation of the principles for
which the Socialist Party stands.

"Capitalism won't work under a New Deal, or an Old Deal," he said,
"since under that system, the em-
ployer has the whip-hand over the em-
laborers are cut, the power of con-
ning is vested in the hands of the
owners. Therefore, the capitalist system breaks down every 8 or 10
years.

Chairman Walcott, who sat as
judge for the day, introduced Mr.
Lewis, said that we must now
own, but we have a Cooperative Eco-

Loomis-Government Business is un-
avoidably delayed, as Judge Franklin
Wilford's beneficent influence, and
her indefatigable energy, are always
at work. The prospects of the team
were not much enhanced by the
captain's words, but the veterans
themselves are so anxious in the
first place. The prospects of the team
will be much better if the veterans
will give their best. The team is
challenged to a meeting with the
veterans of the opposing team.

The number of veterans is in itself
important because the men
have had in many a