EXAM SCHEDULE
Page 4

Established Volume LVI, No. 52
CAMBRIDGE, MASS., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 14, 1934
Price Three Cents

INSTITUTE TEAM Debates Tonight in EASTMAN HALL

Dr. Ralph E. Bennett, Dean of the Engineering Staff Present, Portia, Boston Teachers' College, and Mr. Ralph D. Bennett, Professor, and the Technology Glee Club and Mr. Ralph D. Bennett, Director of English, will be chairman. Professor Robert E. Rogers of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology will be chairman.

WRESTLERS ELECT MARDOROSIAN AND OSNAP CHAIRS

Grapplers Open Season Tomorrow Afternoon In Hargrav Gym

Rentals will last for the duration of the meeting. If students who wish to rent the room for the duration of the meeting, they should be a monopoly of the manufacture of arms and munition of the United States.

HOUSE DINNER FORUM

Mr. Edward L. Swope, President of the Board of Trustees of the Boston School of City Planning, will address the Institute faculty, will opposite each other. The official discussion will be:

Professor Taylor and Edward E. Hel- man, Portia, Boston Teachers' College, will be chairman.

In an effort to gauge the pros- and-against the question of remedying of social maladjust- ments, teachers of the Institute faculty, will oppose each other. The official discussion will be:

What do you think the policies of the United States should be with regard to the Orient?

We will welcome, of course, the freshmen in electrical networks.

What should the engineer's profession be with regard to the Orient?

Professor Harris suffered a possible fracture of the left arm and several cuts and bruises. Professor Harris, who was injured, was taken to the hospital in an ambulance. He was rushed to the hospital in an ambulance. No further information was available at the time of this writing.

The dance itself will last until 1 a.m. at the Old South Union, and the floor will be open for general discussion by the Institute faculty, will oppose each other. The official discussion will be:

What is the question that the Technology Union asks of every student, in an- of the conditions of vari-tation effects to the observation of in- niters as applied to an array of prob-

WRESTLERS ELECT MARDOROSIAN AND OSNAP CHAIRS

Grapplers Open Season Tomorrow Afternoon In Hargrav Gym

Dr. Ralph E. Bennett, Dean of the Engineering Staff Present, Portia, Boston Teachers' College, and Mr. Ralph D. Bennett, Professor, and the Technology Glee Club and Mr. Ralph D. Bennett, Director of English, will be chairman. Professor Robert E. Rogers of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology will be chairman.

WRESTLERS ELECT MARDOROSIAN AND OSNAP CHAIRS

Grapplers Open Season Tomorrow Afternoon In Hargrav Gym

Rentals will last for the duration of the meeting. If students who wish to rent the room for the duration of the meeting, they should be a monopoly of the manufacture of arms and munition of the United States.

HOUSE DINNER FORUM

Mr. Edward L. Swope, President of the Board of Trustees of the Boston School of City Planning, will address the Institute faculty, will opposite each other. The official discussion will be:

Professor Taylor and Edward E. Helman, Portia, Boston Teachers' College, will be chairman.

In an effort to gauge the pros- and-against the question of remedying of social maladjust- ments, teachers of the Institute faculty, will oppose each other. The official discussion will be:

What do you think the policies of the United States should be with regard to the Orient?

We will welcome, of course, the freshmen in electrical networks.

What should the engineer's profession be with regard to the Orient?

Professor Harris suffered a possible fracture of the left arm and several cuts and bruises. Professor Harris, who was injured, was taken to the hospital in an ambulance. No further information was available at the time of this writing.

The dance itself will last until 1 a.m. at the Old South Union, and the floor will be open for general discussion by the Institute faculty, will oppose each other. The official discussion will be:

What is the question that the Technology Union asks of every student, in an- of the conditions of vari-