Walter H. Stockmayer, ’35, has been chosen as one of the four Rhodes scholars from Harvard. The award was announced after a meeting of the First District Selection Committee held yesterday at the Harvard Club, Harvard. The award carries a stipend of approximately $3000 per year for two years study in Great Britain, England.

Stockmayer, who is a student in Courses V, expressed delight at the selection and at the same time a feeling of remorse for the other men who were exceptionally far below him.

Dr. Compton Elects Head of Organization

Dr. C. R. Compton, Professor of Physics and Chairman of the Physics Department, announced Wednesday that for the first time a physicist who is also a prominent figure in physics teaching was elected to the post of President of the American Institute of Physics. For the past two years, Dr. Compton has been the President-elect of the Institute, and for the past year, he has been President of the Institute.

The award was announced at a meeting of the First District Selection Committee held yesterday at the Harvard Club, Harvard. The award carries a stipend of approximately $3000 per year for two years study in Great Britain, England.

Stockmayer, who is a student in Courses V, expressed delight at the selection and at the same time a feeling of remorse for the other men who were exceptionally far below him.

The latest to receive this award is Dr. C. R. Compton, Professor of Physics and Chairman of the Physics Department, announced Wednesday that for the first time a physicist who is also a prominent figure in physics teaching was elected to the post of President of the American Institute of Physics. For the past two years, Dr. Compton has been the President-elect of the Institute, and for the past year, he has been President of the Institute.

The award was announced at a meeting of the First District Selection Committee held yesterday at the Harvard Club, Harvard. The award carries a stipend of approximately $3000 per year for two years study in Great Britain, England.

Stockmayer, who is a student in Courses V, expressed delight at the selection and at the same time a feeling of remorse for the other men who were exceptionally far below him.

The latest to receive this award is Dr. C. R. Compton, Professor of Physics and Chairman of the Physics Department, announced Wednesday that for the first time a physicist who is also a prominent figure in physics teaching was elected to the post of President of the American Institute of Physics. For the past two years, Dr. Compton has been the President-elect of the Institute, and for the past year, he has been President of the Institute.

The award was announced at a meeting of the First District Selection Committee held yesterday at the Harvard Club, Harvard. The award carries a stipend of approximately $3000 per year for two years study in Great Britain, England.

Stockmayer, who is a student in Courses V, expressed delight at the selection and at the same time a feeling of remorse for the other men who were exceptionally far below him.

The latest to receive this award is Dr. C. R. Compton, Professor of Physics and Chairman of the Physics Department, announced Wednesday that for the first time a physicist who is also a prominent figure in physics teaching was elected to the post of President of the American Institute of Physics. For the past two years, Dr. Compton has been the President-elect of the Institute, and for the past year, he has been President of the Institute.

The award was announced at a meeting of the First District Selection Committee held yesterday at the Harvard Club, Harvard. The award carries a stipend of approximately $3000 per year for two years study in Great Britain, England.

Stockmayer, who is a student in Courses V, expressed delight at the selection and at the same time a feeling of remorse for the other men who were exceptionally far below him.

The latest to receive this award is Dr. C. R. Compton, Professor of Physics and Chairman of the Physics Department, announced Wednesday that for the first time a physicist who is also a prominent figure in physics teaching was elected to the post of President of the American Institute of Physics. For the past two years, Dr. Compton has been the President-elect of the Institute, and for the past year, he has been President of the Institute.

The award was announced at a meeting of the First District Selection Committee held yesterday at the Harvard Club, Harvard. The award carries a stipend of approximately $3000 per year for two years study in Great Britain, England.

Stockmayer, who is a student in Courses V, expressed delight at the selection and at the same time a feeling of remorse for the other men who were exceptionally far below him.

The latest to receive this award is Dr. C. R. Compton, Professor of Physics and Chairman of the Physics Department, announced Wednesday that for the first time a physicist who is also a prominent figure in physics teaching was elected to the post of President of the American Institute of Physics. For the past two years, Dr. Compton has been the President-elect of the Institute, and for the past year, he has been President of the Institute.

The award was announced at a meeting of the First District Selection Committee held yesterday at the Harvard Club, Harvard. The award carries a stipend of approximately $3000 per year for two years study in Great Britain, England.

Stockmayer, who is a student in Courses V, expressed delight at the selection and at the same time a feeling of remorse for the other men who were exceptionally far below him.

The latest to receive this award is Dr. C. R. Compton, Professor of Physics and Chairman of the Physics Department, announced Wednesday that for the first time a physicist who is also a prominent figure in physics teaching was elected to the post of President of the American Institute of Physics. For the past two years, Dr. Compton has been the President-elect of the Institute, and for the past year, he has been President of the Institute.

The award was announced at a meeting of the First District Selection Committee held yesterday at the Harvard Club, Harvard. The award carries a stipend of approximately $3000 per year for two years study in Great Britain, England.

Stockmayer, who is a student in Courses V, expressed delight at the selection and at the same time a feeling of remorse for the other men who were exceptionally far below him.

The latest to receive this award is Dr. C. R. Compton, Professor of Physics and Chairman of the Physics Department, announced Wednesday that for the first time a physicist who is also a prominent figure in physics teaching was elected to the post of President of the American Institute of Physics. For the past two years, Dr. Compton has been the President-elect of the Institute, and for the past year, he has been President of the Institute.

The award was announced at a meeting of the First District Selection Committee held yesterday at the Harvard Club, Harvard. The award carries a stipend of approximately $3000 per year for two years study in Great Britain, England.

Stockmayer, who is a student in Courses V, expressed delight at the selection and at the same time a feeling of remorse for the other men who were exceptionally far below him.

The latest to receive this award is Dr. C. R. Compton, Professor of Physics and Chairman of the Physics Department, announced Wednesday that for the first time a physicist who is also a prominent figure in physics teaching was elected to the post of President of the American Institute of Physics. For the past two years, Dr. Compton has been the President-elect of the Institute, and for the past year, he has been President of the Institute.

The award was announced at a meeting of the First District Selection Committee held yesterday at the Harvard Club, Harvard. The award carries a stipend of approximately $3000 per year for two years study in Great Britain, England.