"They appreciate Tech men."

"They are good dancers, polished conversationally, and excellent all-around companions."

"Smartest."

"Not too extravagant."

"After all, they are not so dumb."

"Interesting, beautiful, intelligent, compassionate."

"They are ladies; ladies are like that."

"They are so intellectual."

"They are good dancers, polished conversationalists, and easily irritated condition. Therefore, to make certain that the situation would not be repeated, it was voted that Tech Show must, in order to continue its functions this year, make a deposit of $200, and pay off the debt of $92.96.

It is now reported that the members of Tech Show have already raised $250.00, and that before the deadline set by the Institute Committee, the entire amount will be forthcoming.

The mechanics of doing all these one after another, it was voted that Tech Show must, in order to continue its functions this year, make a deposit of $200, and pay off the debt of $92.96.

This sum has come from a relatively few students, and although it is probable that the largest amount invested by one man is nothing to make Morgan envious, the fact remains that this sum will furnish an incentive and a reponsibility that could not otherwise be supplied. With the possibility of grievance loss of one’s own pocketbook, expenses and budgets will be watched with an eagle eye, salesmen will find more often that added punch which sells tickets. It is this, not the present organization that promises success for the 1955 Tech Show.

TECH POLL
