Z

"I Believe that the girls should pay, pay, and pay. This business of splitting all costs on dates must cease and desist." William K. Titherington, '37, XV-1c, 259 St.

"It all depends on what you get out of life." Fred Wasserman, '37, Leon Hotel.

"The elections will be held in the North Hall of Walther Memorial." J. W. Emerson, Class of 1935.

"It is the duty of the girl to please the fellow and guarantee his return." Elizabeth E. Wheeler, '35, VI, Dormitories.

"It seems that only if they would pay, they would use the service." Mary M. Galley, '35, XVI, Deer Staff.

"It was a great idea! Why can't it be permanent?" Paul St. Matthew, '35, VI, Dormitories.

"It is my duty to inform him that the boys are not paying." William W. Hills, '35, 644 Massachusetts Ave., Cambridge.

"It takes a lot of money to keep a man." William K. Titherington, '37, XV-2, 202 Shakespeare.

"It seems that only if they would pay, they would use the service." Mary M. Galley, '35, XVI, Deer Staff.

"It is the duty of the girl to please the fellow and guarantee his return." Elizabeth E. Wheeler, '35, VI, Dormitories.

"It is the duty of the girl to please the fellow and guarantee his return." Elizabeth E. Wheeler, '35, VI, Dormitories.

"It is my duty to inform him that the boys are not paying." William W. Hills, '35, 644 Massachusetts Ave., Cambridge.