CALENDAR

Tuesday, March 5
5:00—Glee Club Practice, Room 10-250.
5:00—Orchestra Rehearsal, Room 10-350.
7:00—Tech Show Chorus Rehearsal, Walker Gymnasium.

Wednesday, March 6
6:00—The Graduate House Dinner, North Hall, Walker Memorial.
Thursday, March 7
2:00—Mathematical Colloquium, “The Extrema of the Solutions of an Elliptic Differential Equation”, Room 6-100.
3:30—Theoretical Seminar, “Theories of Magnetism, V”, Room 6-100.
4:30—Physical Colloquium, “Crystallization in Metals”, and “Recent X-ray Studies” (by S. S. Stiles; Clark); (b) Modifications of Phosphoros, Room 6-100.
5:00—Glee Club Practice, Room 10-250.
6:30—Orchestra Rehearsal, Room 10-250.
7:30—Tech Show Chorus Rehearsal, Walker Gymnasium.
8:30—Tea and Dinner, Silver Room, Walker Memorial.

BLEND 5:10—F. C. Dance

I. F. C. Dance

(Continued from Page 1)

During one of the intermissions the tabloid style, was distributed by members of the staff and their guests. It consisted of a large number of pictures, news, and feature articles, all in the style of the Boston Daily Record.

200 Guests Inspect New Graduate Rooms

More than two hundred guests were present last Sunday at a tea given in the newly opened Ware and Macomb Rooms of the Graduate House. Among the guests were a large delegation of members of the Corporation and most of the heads of departments.

Tea and coffee were served on the ground floor of Ware in the two living rooms, which, like the rest of the Graduate House, were open for inspection. Great admiration was expressed for the Franklin Dining Rooms to guests who were delighted with the mural decorations, the lighting effects, and the ultra-modern indirect heating system.

Institute Gym Team Loses To Army, 36-18

Approximately 300 people interestedly watched the M. I. T. gym team meet West Point last Saturday afternoon and saw it go down gallantly to defeat by the score of 36-18. The Army team of 17 men all delivered smooth performances.

Van Ham, Tech Captain and Hall of Fame member, had distinguished performance on the flying rings and side horse respectively.

Flaitz, Miller, Star

Basketball Teams For Tech Tournament Chosen

McCarthy Announces Choices To Play Here This Weekend

By special permission of P. T. McCarthy, The Tech has obtained a release of the high schools elected to participate in the Tech Basketball Tournament this coming Thursday, Friday, and Saturday. The games will be held in the hangar gym and will feature the best of the high school quintets in Eastern Massachusetts.

The following schools have been chosen: Fitchburg, Brookline, Lynn Classical, Chelsea, Quincy, New Bedford, Worcester Commerce, and the winner of the Essex County League. As it stands now, Beverly is to play Gloucester tonight, and if it wins it will be tied for first place with Haverhill. In that event a play-off the following night will decide the entry. Should Beverly lose, Haverhill will be entered.

Swimming

(Continued from Page 1)

and was slightly out-distanced in the 100-yard event. Judging by his excellent record on the freshman team this year, Flaitz will be a valuable winner in the intercollegiates to be held at Tech Friday of this week.

THE TECH

Tuesday, March 5, 1935

Wrestlers

(Continued from Page 1)

by a score of 28 to 8. The winners for M. I. T. in the varsity bouts were Edward R. Clark, Jr., 118 lbs, who won by default; Avedis Mardorosian, 185 lbs, who threw his man; and Harold George, 135 lbs, who also won by fall. The lightweight class, John Centoni added to the score by gaining a draw with Combs of Springfield.

Harold George was the hero of the varsity bunch. In his first bout on the varsity team this year he came thru by beating Hawkens of Springfield, who is unquestionably fine material for the intercollegiates. Co-captain Mardorosian is also rated as a probable winner in the intercollegiates.

Costume winner

The heavyweight costume gave definite proof that he has improved when he obtained a draw with Combs, by whom he was beaten last year. Al- though not a winner Co-captain Har- old Oshry did a fine job in the 165 lb. class. He lost a time decision to Clark of Springfield who has been outstanding all season.

In the freshman bouts the role Tech who were Atmore Stewart 175 lbs, who took the decision from Konsivitis of the intercollegiates to be held at Tech Friday of this week.