In preparation for next year, Coach Henry McCarthy is conducting practice sessions three times a week for all those eligible for the 1934-35 English team. The sessions will probably last for two weeks more in order to give the coach a good test of his material. There will be three starting positions to be filled next December, due to the graduation of Dick Smith, Johnny Donn, and Fred O'Brien.

Speaking of basketball, we get a pick at the I. F. C. loop schedules recently. From it we glean the information that there are twenty-four house teams entered, twelve in each division. Although the first games in each division were only played Wednesday evening, the contests will be run off in such rapid succession that the champion will be known in less than two weeks.

Quite an argument developed in Walker Gym Wednesday evening over the question of the right to use the gym floor. The varsity fencers had a most scheduled there for eight o'clock and were seemingly preparing to take possession of the floor. Meanwhile a dozen Phi Kappa Sigma men arrived in basketball suits and announced their intentions of contesting a practice. While the representatives of these two conflicting groups were arguing back and forth another aggregation of baseball players arrived on the scene. This latter group was composed of members of the Dorm team who had held practices in Walker on the three preceding Wednesdays and fairly expected to do so again.

After a conference it was found that the fraternity team had signed up for the floor for the time in question and therefore was entitled to use it. It was decided that the Dorm team should return at 9:30, but there remained the fencers to be taken care of. Finally, in spite of much protest by the fencing manager, the swordsmen defended their right of possession. After a conference the question was referred to the committee. A decision will be announced later in the week.

We think the following letter received recently at the Field House from a certain Tech athlete stricken with the German measles deserves publication here. It reads as follows:

Dear Oscar, Bob, Sue, Jim, Don, Bill, and all of the rest of the Track House:

Dorm "Prison" Dance Will Feature "Jail"

Jail will be continued again at the Dorslynn informal dance to be held Friday, March 30, in Walker Memorial, from 9 to 2 o'clock. This year's theme scheme to provide entertainment was so successful at the dance last year that the committee decided to feature it at this time.

Cops will be on the lookout for dancing "criminals," during the hour that the jail system is in effect. Offenders punishable by incarcration are shuffling, slow dancing, and too close proximity between dancers. The maximum clause of confinement will be two minutes, with the girls being released first. All "ex-con" will have the privilege of cutting in on anyone. Those resisting cutting in will be jailed.

WE ASKED LEADERS IN WINTER SPORTS:

"FLAVOR!" Jack Beat, Olympic Speed Skater, says: "Camels taste so good that we Camel fans get the end row of seats at Speed Skating Rinks. We call it a camel's eye view. Be sure to smoke Camel today."

"ENERGY!" Count t's amazing effect is a great thing for one who is tired. -says Paul Thompson, of the world-champion Chicago Black Hawks, "Camel gives me more pep, more energy. Few things are better than - Camel!"

"VALUE!" - Try just an occasional winter sports brand. - "Camels" are the economical brand. - Ask your Camel dealer to show you Camel."

"HEALTHY NERVES!" Says Harry Nunn, North American Hocky Champion: "When I was in Europe I knew Camel's worth with a kick. When I had need of a cigarette then Camel is the cigarette for me! I know that Camel makes my nerves strong and my emotions good!"

"MILDNESS!" Bob Sheet, exski skipper, says: "Camels are so mild and easy to smoke that nobody ever comments on the smoke. You see, it's a very important fact that Camels are low tobacco!"

Squash Tournaments have started and by the end of the month, Coach Summers will know who the best men are. The matches are under regular squash rules; the winner of three out of five sets gets the decision.

Junior Varsity Tournament has attracted fifteen, the Individual Tournament fourteen, and the Freedman tournament has collected sixty-four aspiring champions. The freshmen have the jump on the others as they have already played one match. The Junior Varsity Tournament will be played before March 30, the second before March 25, the third before March 23, and the Finals will be played off March 23 and 25.
