ed for a statement, however. The experienced cast is headed by James J. Bowier, '36, as Robert Mayo; and Mary M. Goldwater, '35, who takes the part of Ruth. Souder will be remembered as the "Vagabond" in Dramashop's last production, "The Tavern."

The Play's Plot

The story of the play is familiar to those who have seen the recent motion pictures for it concerns two brothers in love with the same girl. One marries her and stays at home on the farm, although he has a longing for what "might have been." The other leaves the farm, to which he is married, and travels around the world. The play shows how husband and wife gradually become embittered and dissatisfied, longing for what "might have been."

Cast of Players

Leonard, '36, as Captain Scott; Robert Mayo's brother; Janet C. Wagner, '36, as Mrs. Atkins, Ruth's mother; Donald J. McMullin, '36, as Andy; Robert Mayo's brother; Frederick R. Isaacs, '36, as Captain Scott, Mrs. Mayo's brother; Jean I. Wagner, '36, as Mrs. Mayo; and Frederick R. Isaacs, '36, as Dr. Watcett.

Offer Scholarships

Students in the Institute who wish to devote part of the summer to the study of the German language and literature are offered two scholarships for this summer at the Munich Summer School. Students interested should consult the Modern Language Department.

The course consists of five hours' daily instruction in language, literature, history, philosophy, etc. The candidate may enter the Lower, Middle, or the Upper Language Courses, and may attend the daily lectures.

Scene near end of play when the immensity of Robert's death is suddenly realized.

Because you cannot make a good cigarette from just one year's crop there are today 4½ miles of warehouses filled with cigarette tobaccos from the crops of 1931-32-33-34—most of it for Chesterfield cigarettes.

Just as money accumulates interest, two and a half years of ageing makes these tobaccos milder and naturally sweeter.

Think what this means—an eighty-five-mil- lion dollar reason why men and women who smoke Chesterfields will always enjoy a milder, better-tasting cigarette.
