Harvard Roundtable Conference Presents Prominent Speakers

Gathering At Harvard Next Week To Discuss Opportunities for College Men

Opportunities for college men in governmental fields will be fully investigated and supplemented by a discussion of the conference to be held in the Phillips Brooks House, Harvard University, on April 12 and 13. Men prominent in government service. The main feature of the conference will be the round table discussions, at which various speakers will attempt to answer questions on the subject of civil, federal, state, and municipal service.

The freshman gathering is open to all undergraduates, faculty members, and professional men in the vicinity of Cambridge.

Business Executives To Act as Examiners

Honor Students in Electrical Engineering To Take Spring Exams

Two prominent figures from industry and one professor from Cornell University will join members of the Institute Faculty as members on the examination committee for honor students in the Department of Electrical Engineering this spring. A. M. Duford, manager of foreign and development engineering for the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company; L. P. Richbell, '22, chief engineer of the Anacostia Wire and Cable Company; and Professor E. M. Strong, '22, of Cornell University, will serve as outside examiners in connection with Professor E. H. Frazer, L. S. Smith, E. A. Thresher, and C. G. G. Walker to confer with the freshman class in all subjects of their work.

Manager Duford, class of 1908, University of Michigan, has been associated with the Westinghouse Company since 1919. Chief Engineer Richbell, a graduate of Cornell, is a follower of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers and a member of the American Society of Electrical Engineers. Professor Strong is connected with the Armstrong Company, and President Power Company, and is counselor of the student branch of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers, and a member of Eta Kappa Nu.

Musical Clubs Give Free Concert Sunday

Joint Number With Orchestra Feature Of Afternoon

The first joint performance of the Orchestra and the Glee Club will be held by the Concert Master Club next Sunday afternoon, April 5, at 3.30 P.M. in the Main Hall of Walker Memorial. The Orchestra and Glee Club will take for a single number, the feature of the afternoon, Miss Elizabeth Stevens, Miss E. L. Gregory, and Misses Peabody and Kenyon, and the orchestra, the Glee Club, and the Orchestra will take for a single number, the feature of the afternoon, Miss Margaret. The orchestra will be conducted by Mr. John.